"When it comes to Oklahoma volleyball, the fans have the opportunity to be right next to the action. Oklahoma fans are passionate for any team that puts on a jersey that says "Sooners" and volleyball is no different. Fans expect a win regardless of the opponent. Attending games is a great way to cheer on the players and the school. The intensity is unmatched because of the ability to be so close. Oklahoma volleyball is very addicting to watch."

THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA SOONERS

SADDLE UP ^

In addition to the cheerleaders and band, the most recognizable faces at home volleyball matches are Boomer and Sooner.

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A »

The Sooner pep band is a regular feature at home matches. Is there a better way to get the team fired up than a few lines of "Oklahoma" or "Boomer Sooner"?

MCCASLAND FIELD HOUSE

HOME SWEET HOME

Located in the heart of campus just north of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Howard McCasland Field House provides a first-class training and competition venue for the OU volleyball and wrestling teams.

In 2005, the Field House underwent a $6 million face lift that included a complete interior renovation. The historic floor was resanded and repainted with four efficient practice courts and chair-back seating that offers fans more comfort was added.

In addition, the entire facility was repainted and improvements were made to the HVAC system, sound system, lighting and scoreboards. The Sooners also enjoyed renovations to the training room as well as an upgrade to both teams' locker rooms.

"The renovations are a signal to the Big 12 and the nation that the University of Oklahoma and its community are serious about Sooner volleyball," head coach Santiago Restrepo said.

"A large part of why I came here is because of the support the volleyball program has at OU, Restrepo said. "The renovations are a great example of the commitment our university has in making Oklahoma volleyball a top-notch program. We will do our part to make sure that happens."

History

Originally constructed in 1928, the Field House was once the home of the men's basketball team. More than 5,000 fans were in attendance for the facility's first game as the Sooners beat the Kansas Jayhawks, 45-19.

Since its construction, the Field House has been home to numerous sports. In addition to the basketball programs, volleyball, women's and men's gymnastics and wrestling have all featured events here.

In addition to sporting events, the Field House has hosted several notable musicians and entertainers in its history. Oklahoma students have watched acts including Jimi Hendrix (1970), Bill Cosby (1968), Henry Mancini (1963), Sonny and Cher (1969), Nat King Cole (1956) and Duke Ellington (1956). Former President Bill Clinton spoke at the Field House during the 2008 presidential campaign.

Howard McCasland

A former captain and center for the Oklahoma basketball team from 1914-16, Howard McCasland was an outstanding player who local Sooner fans flocked to the gym to watch. During his senior campaign in 1916, McCasland totaled 407 points in the season which accounted for half of the team's entire points that season. The Field House is named in his honor.

WHY OKLAHOMA?

"I choose Oklahoma because I grew up a Sooner fan. Both my parents attended OU, along with my aunts and uncles. I love the tradition that the University upholds and the pride the University carries. The prestigious academic programs and the successful athletic programs allow for such a great college experience. I am so blessed and honored to be a part of the Sooner family. I have enjoyed every experience I have had here."

Senior Bridget Laplante

"I chose the University of Oklahoma for the chance and opportunity to be everything for which a Sooner stands. When I first took my recruiting visit, everyone the staff was truly interested in what was best for me as a student-athlete. I could easily see that to be a Sooner, success was expected in every realm of life. I wanted to seize a chance to be something, to do something, to make a difference and to begin a successful life as a leader in this world. That is what I knew I would find by playing for the University of Oklahoma."

Former Sooner Laura Tomes

"Oklahoma was always an option for me. My family lives in Oklahoma and have been Sooners all their lives. It was safe to say my family couldn't have been happier when I chose Oklahoma as my school. The atmosphere in all the athletics programs and the success achieved by so many athletes drew me in. The volleyball program is definitely getting stronger and stronger each year. I knew my recruiting class I would keep the competitive style of play for all my years here. The players here are great and the team has strong chemistry. The school provides a great academic environment, as well. Anything I need to be successful in the classroom is here. Oklahoma was the perfect place for me in volleyball as well as in the classroom."

Sophomore Brianne Barker

"I chose Oklahoma because of how passionate the coaches are about volleyball. I've always wanted to play in the Big 12, and I was able to. They were very serious about turning the program around, and I wanted to be a part of that. The campus is beautiful and the education is excellent. I wanted to succeed on the court and get a great education. OU was the perfect fit for me."

Former Sooner Lacy Barnes

DIFFERENT REASONS, ONE GOAL

CLOSE TO HOME »
Junior Francie Ekwerekwu came to OU for a variety of reasons, but one of her most important involved her mother being able to travel from Arlington, Texas, to see her play.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME »
Junior Sarah Freudenrich returned to her home state after a year at the University of Arkansas. Freudenrich said simply, "There's no place like home."

TO LEAVE A MARK »
Sophomore Brianne Barker came to Oklahoma to be a part of a growing tradition.

"When I came on my visit, the team was really nice, funny, and seemed like my kind of people. Santiago and the coaching staff seemed like a group who would push me and also make me a better player. I loved the beautiful campus, pride and tradition of the Sooners, and the coziness of Norman. The people in the athletic department seemed nice and professional. The football team was great, and I would get to see my big brother who also played a sport in the Big 12. Most of all, it was close to home so my mother could come see me play. Overall, after I prayed about it and God gave me the green light, it just felt right for me."

Junior Francie Ekwerekwu

"I chose to come to Oklahoma because the instant I stepped on campus I could feel the tradition and pride in the school. OU is so successful across the board, from athletics to academics, and I knew that I wanted to be a part of carrying on that success. Big 12 volleyball is also the most competitive in the country, and I knew that if we wanted to beat the best, we had to play the best. The athletic culture at OU is one that encourages athletes to take a winning mentality in all aspects of life."

Former Sooner Anna Stadel

"I chose Oklahoma for several reasons. On my visit, I was attracted to the amazing school spirit OU's fans brought to the sporting events, especially the kindness and support of the people of Oklahoma. I was impressed with how well the student athletes were supported in their academic and life endeavors. I just fell in love with the beautiful campus and historical architecture."

Senior Jackie Fotu

"I consider OU a place where anyone wants to be. It is not only about the sport you play, but also about the person you want to be in the future. The entire athletics administration does an amazing job providing and supporting student-athletes in whatever it is necessary for to succeed in life. I am glad to look back and, with no doubt, know I made the right decision choosing OU as my home. It has a beautiful campus with awesome facilities, friendly people and a great place to focus on our studies."

Former Sooner Eliane Santos

THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA SOONERS

FAMILY TRADITION »

Senior Bridget Laplante has been a Sooner her whole life. She is continuing a family tradition by attending OU.

FOR THE FUTURE ≈

Sophomore Danielle Alva saw more than just volleyball at OU. She wanted a high quality education and life skills.

A PACESETTER FOR PUBLIC HIGHER EDUCATION IN THE UNITED STATES

"The University of Oklahoma is truly a great university. It is becoming a pacesetter for public higher education in the United States. We must no longer keep the university's excellence a secret! It's time for us to let others know about the strengths of our university and our determination to make it even better."

- University of Oklahoma President David L. Boren

Created by the Oklahoma Territorial Legislature in 1890, the University of Oklahoma is a doctoral degree-granting research university serving the educational, cultural, economic and health-care needs of the state, region and nation. ## PRENTICE GAUTT ACADEMIC CENTER

In the 1950s, he came to OU to play football, and, in the process, broke down barriers and crushed stereotypes. Today, OU student-athletes use the Prentice Gault Academic Center to break another kind of stereotype. The center that today's student-athletes use everyday now bears the name of the man who left an indelible legacy for Sooner Athletics and helped change a society in the process.

The formal dedication of the Prentice Gault Academic Center was held Friday, Sept. 17, 1999. The proposal to re-name the center was approved by the OU Board of Regents in March 1999.

"It is appropriate that this center be named after Prentice Gault," OU President David L. Boren said. "His personal values and character, along with his leadership as associate commissioner of the Big 12 Conference, continue to bring pride to his alma mater. His personal example of quiet courage, grace under pressure, and dedication to the university helped open the doors of opportunity for countless number of African-American and minority student-athletes who have followed him into collegiate athletics."

The professional consultants of the Prentice Gault Academic Center help student-athletes with a variety of academic tasks, from learning strategy instruction to any stage of the writing process including preparing for an essay exam and the formal research paper.

The goal is to help student-athletes develop the strategies they need to be successful by encouraging the use of the center for all facets of the learning and writing processes encountered in college.

The Prentice Gault Academic Center provides student-athletes with a state-of-the-art academic support facility. The environment encourages a collaboration between staff members and student-athletes. In addition, it is highly conducive to learning in all areas of students' academic endeavors and features seven learning centers.

Located on the second and third floors in the north end of the Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Academic Center houses Academic Counseling offices, and Learning and Skill Development centers including the Kerr Foundation Computer Center, the Thompson Writing Center and centers for communication, reading, study skills, math and foreign language as well as learning enhancement and study areas.

LEARNING CENTERS: KERR CAREER CENTER

Whether student-athletes are freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors or graduates, they will benefit from the services of the Kerr Career Center. It provides a system of services that educates and guides students through the career development process.

The Career Center is dedicated to helping students make the transition from college to career by developing an individualized career plan where they gather information to assist in making a decision about a career; obtain information on the suitable career list; explore classes and publications in the field as well as obtain experience; and gain knowledge and skills necessary for résumé writing, job-related letter writing and interviewing techniques.

The Career Center is a link with the campus Careers Services Office and offers student-athletes a wide array of effective job hunting skills, training and career services.

KERR FOUNDATION COMPUTER CENTER

In the 21st century, computers have become an integral part of the learning experience. Students need access to computers and their resources almost daily. The Kerr Foundation Computer Centers are here to meet these technological needs. We provide each student with the equipment and support necessary to succeed.

The computer center is housed within the Prentice Gault Academic Center and houses nearly 200 computers available exclusively to our student-athletes.

Students also enjoy a large amount of storage space on our athletic network. Laptop computers are checked out to students when the computer center is unavailable. This allows access to our network and resources 24 hours a day. The laptop program is very important in helping athletes stay on top of their schoolwork when traveling.

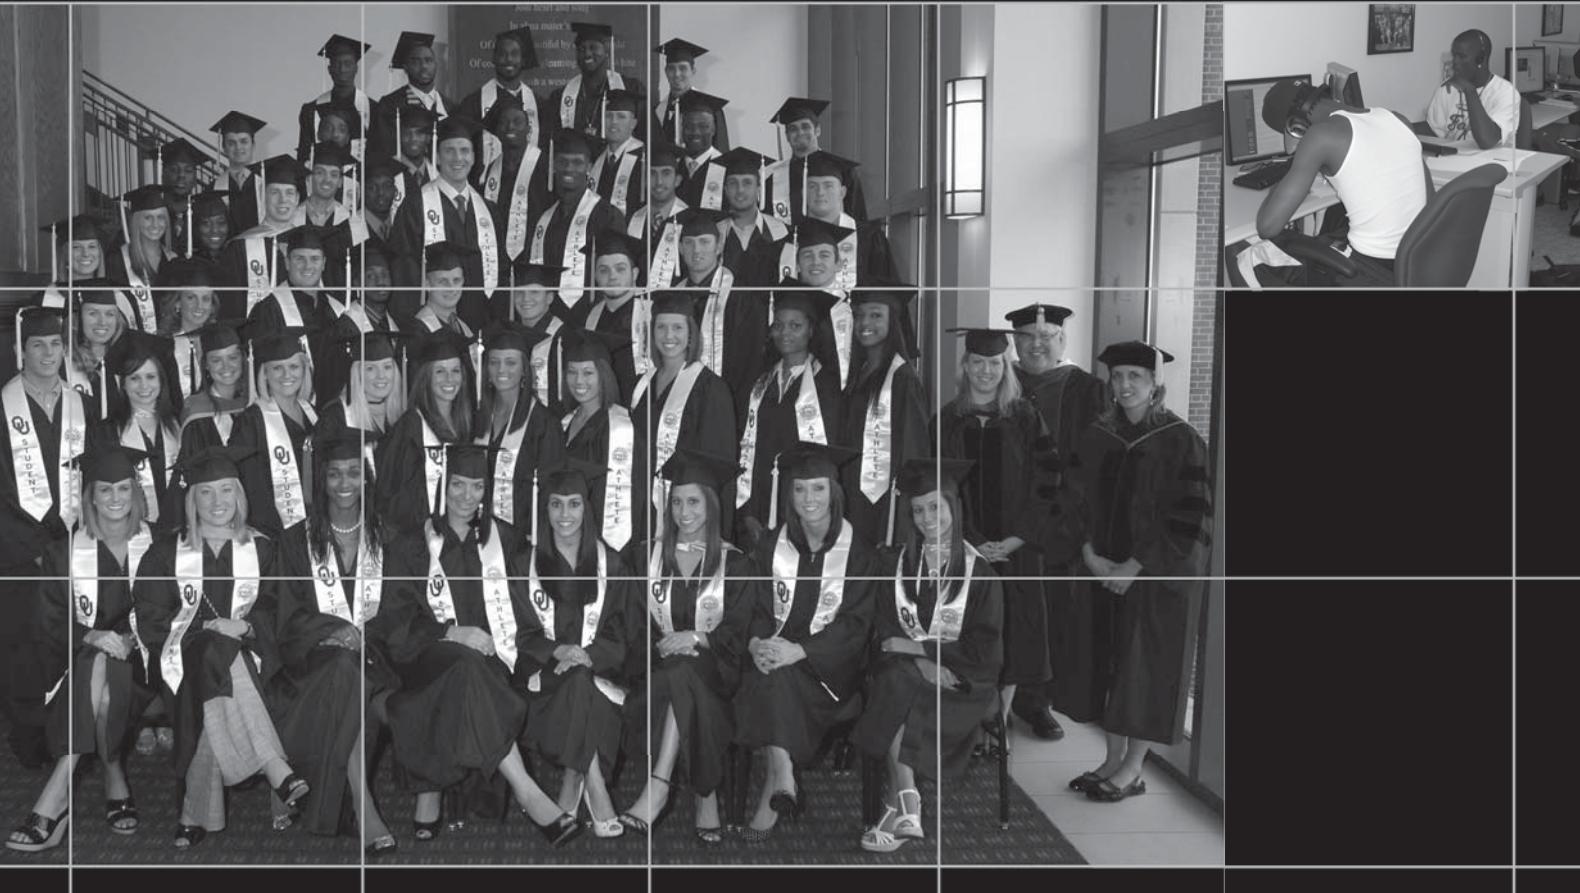

Group training is provided for all new student-athletes during the first week of supervised study. This helps familiarize each student with our resources and procedures. Individual training sessions are available to each student and lab technicians are always on hand to help.

The Kerr Foundation Computer Center has been a model for other universities around the country. We plan on being a leader in the future as well. Upgrades are scheduled annually and there is a deep commitment from the Athletics Department ensures that the excellence in the computer center will continue for a long time.

Steps For Building "Champions For Life"

STEP ONE: Assessment

New Student-Athlete Assessment - The academic assessment process begins with an entry-level assessment of all incoming student-athletes. This assessment is designed to help student-athletes know their strengths and weaknesses in content areas such as reading, writing, and mathematics. With this information, we can determine if student-athletes have the skills necessary to succeed in standard entry-level courses. Some results from this initial assessment may require additional testing, enrollment in developmental courses and academic services, or programs recommended based on individual needs. The ultimate purpose of our assessment is to ensure that student-athletes have the appropriate academic support services to achieve academic success.

STEP TWO: Skill Development

Tutorial Program - A comprehensive tutoring program of approximately 150 tutors provides one-to-one and small-group instruction. Student-athletes are assisted with study skills, problem-solving techniques and specific course material. Athletic Student Life Office counselors may recommend tutors or a student-athlete may request one independently.

Study Skills - The Study Skills Center provides student-athletes with assistance in college reading strategies and individual instruction for reading improvement. A learning specialist regularly conducts time management and study skills workshops. The staff's goal is to help student-athletes become independent writers and learners in the academic environment.

Computer Skills - The Kerr Foundation Athletic Computer Center, also located in the Prentice Gault Academic Center, provides student-athletes with computer knowledge and access. The Computer Center is open six days a week with extended hours offered during peak times. Made possible from a $250,000 Kerr Foundation matching grant, the Athletic Computer Center is equipped with more than 200 state-of-the-art computers, including Macintosh and Windows-compatible computers with color monitors, CD-ROM drives and modems. High-speed high-resolution laser printers, digital camera, video equipment and a scanner are also available for student-athlete use. Software in use includes all popular word processing programs, spreadsheet programs, presentation programs, databases and desktop publishing/graphic design programs. In addition, computer training courses are provided each semester and portable computers are available to student-athletes who need computer access after 11 p.m. Approximately 100 portables are also available to teams when traveling.

Foreign Language - The Kerr Foundation Foreign Language Center was established to assist student-athletes with speaking, listening, reading and writing in different languages. The Center, coordinated by a Modern Languages department instructor, offers a top-notch multimedia environment for all foreign language instruction.

Math Skills - Realizing the increasing role mathematics plays in society today, the Prentice Gault Academic Center aims to help all student-athletes achieve an understanding of math and related topics in their course work. Prentice Gault ushered in a new era for Oklahoma football when he landed a spot on the 1956 team. Former Sooner head coach Bud Wilkinson was pressured against giving Gault a scholarship. A group of black doctors and pharmacists gave money for Gault to attend the school. Within a year, Gault was given a scholarship and the donated amounts were given to another black student.

Gault, considered Oklahoma's best player in 1958, was a two-time All-Big Eight player and 1959 Orange Bowl MVP. During his senior year, Gault was named to the academic All-America team and eventually earned master's and doctorate degrees in psychology.

The academic center for student-athletes at the University of Oklahoma was named in Gault's honor in 1999. A special assistant to the commissioner of the Big 12 Conference, Gault passed away on March 17, 2005.

"His personal example of quiet courage, grace under pressure, and dedication to the university helped open the doors of opportunity for countless numbers of African-Americans and minority student-athletes who have followed him into collegiate athletics," said University of Oklahoma president David Boren.

search strategies, interviewing skills and graduate school preparation assistance through the Kerr Career Center. The Sooner Career Program is dedicated to educating student-athletes about the world of work and providing a transition from college athletics to their first careers. The program includes the OU Career Fair, career information seminars, opportunities for summer internships in various fields, an employment referral service and mentorship opportunities for graduating student-athletes. The Career Center, an exciting learning center, allows student-athletes the opportunity to explore potential careers and majors through a variety of resources. Additionally, student-athletes are able to take personality and career inventories via computer. The Sooner Career Program is jointly sponsored by the OU Athletics Department, the Sooner Club and the Varsity O Association.

Communication Skills - Communicating well is an essential skill in successful personal and professional interaction for OU student-athletes. The OU Communications Center offers training for effective oral communication and media relations. A working media conference room featuring a stage and a modern audio-visual systems is available in a state-of-the-art communications center.

SUPERVISED STUDY

Supervised study is a monitored study program designed to provide student-athletes with organized study and tutoring time in a flexible environment conducive to successful learning. Supervised study is required for all first-semester freshmen, transfer student-athletes, student-athletes with a cumulative GPA below 2.50, and any student-athlete who the coaching staff and the Student Life academic staff believe would benefit from the experience. Supervised study is flexible for all student-athletes. All freshman and transfer student-athletes are required to put in 10 hours a week in their first semester at the University. Any study area or learning center is available for use during these times.

ACADEMIC ASSISTANCE AND TUTORING

Individual or small group sessions can be arranged with content experts either allocated by academic services or personally requested by the student-athlete. Academic services also provides revision groups, study sessions and weekly instruction on an individual or group basis in order to ensure student-athlete success.

LEARNING ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM

Learning specialists are assigned by academic services to designated student-athletes to assist them with study skills, problem solving techniques, and time management. The primary goal of the learning program is to create an environment conducive to student-athlete success in the university academic setting. The staff of the Athletic Student Life office promote this environment of academic success through several methods. Arriving at a college campus can be very intimidating for both freshmen and transfer students. Our program provides a learning specialists to help familiarize the student-athlete with the academic and social culture at OU, thus helping to ease the transition to the University setting for student-athletes.

STEP THREE: Counseling

Personal Career Counseling - Student-athletes receive caring, professional support from Dr. Gerald Gurney and his staff at all levels. This support may take several forms, including career choice, academic or personal decisions.

Academic Counseling and Advisement - Six professional athletic academic counselors are present to help student-athletes through the educational process. Approximately one counselor per 100 student-athletes is available to assist the student-athletes with planning class schedules, choosing degree programs and setting personal and academic goals.

Psychological Counseling and Sport Psychology (PROS)

The Prentice Gault Academic Center is staffed with a licensed Counseling Psychologist and several psychological counselors and interns to provide a wide array of counseling and performance enhancing services. Student-athletes may visit the staff psychologist to confidentially discuss anything impacting their academic, athletic or personal lives. OU's national award-winning program has become a model for other programs to follow.

Academic Monitoring - Course attendance and course performance are checked a minimum of four times per semester for each student-athlete participating in the intercollegiate athletic program.

Personal Health and Nutritional Counseling - The personal health and nutritional needs of student-athletes are monitored by the OU Sports Medicine staff of physicians and certified athletic trainers. The Wagner Dining Center makes every effort to accommodate the special dietary and nutritional requirements of OU student-athletes. The cafeteria serves all three meals with several healthy entrees to choose from. The menu is designed to meet the nutritional needs of every individual student-athlete by allowing each athlete to choose from a variety of options to accommodate the unique demands of his/her schedule. In addition, a program to promote substance abuse awareness requires student-athletes to enroll in a campus personal health course focusing on substance abuse, human sexuality, nutrition and stress management.

STEP FOUR: Faculty Relations

Faculty Guest Program - The faculty guest program's purpose is to enhance the athletic department's relationship with the faculty and staff. Faculty members are selected to be guest coaches for the week in all sports throughout the academic year. During that time, the faculty guests are provided with a list of planned activities that are designed to give them an opportunity to experience various aspects of the athletic department's operations and introduce them to student-athlete lifestyles and expectations.

STEP FIVE: Resident Life

Sooner Housing Center - Student-athletes reside in a variety of University housing environments, including the Sooner Housing Center. The Sooner Housing Center, managed by Athletic Student Life staff, is located across the street from the Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. It provides a living environment that is conducive to the academic and personal development of student-athletes. The Sooner Housing Center was the winner of the 1998, 2003 and 2005 President's Trophy for the outstanding housing center on the OU campus and was recognized for its contribution to academic excellence, innovative programming and campus diversity. The Sooner Housing Center was also selected as the President's Trophy runner-up in 1997, 2000 and 2006.

STEP SIX: Life Skills, Academic Recognition, Graduation/Post Eligibility, Community Service and Student-Athlete Leadership

Life Skills Program - OU is a member of the NCAA's Life Skills Program and is dedicated to contributing to the growth and development of student-athletes through academic excellence, athletic excellence, personal development, community service and career development. The OU Athletics Department offers and maintains a strong commitment through comprehensive programs to fully develop the student-athletes' academic and personal potential, while enjoying the highest levels of athletic competition.

Academics Awards Program - The OU Athletic Student Life program places special emphasis upon recognition of outstanding academic performances by student-athletes. An awards banquet is held in the spring to recognize special award winners and scholar athletes who have achieved a 3.00 GPA or higher. Graduating student-athletes receive recognition prior to OU's graduation ceremonies in May during a reception. Each is given an "O" ring, representing their athletic participation and graduation from The University of Oklahoma. All scholarship student-athletes who exhaust their eligibility within eight semesters may receive an additional year of financial aid within a six-year period.

Student-Athlete Advisory Committee - Student-athlete leaders from each sport comprise the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, which aims to improve communication with the athletic and University administration regarding student-athletes' needs and concerns. The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee developed a community outreach partnership with the Oklahoma Youth Center, a local residential facility for physically, mentally and sexually abused children. SAAC also designs programs that encourage excellence in academics and social responsibility and serve to represent student-athletes on campus-wide committees.

OU EXPERIENCES ANOTHER SEASON OF ALL-AROUND EXCELLENCE

Baseball

The 2009 Sooner baseball team advanced to the program's fourth regional final in the last five years under head coach Sunny Golloway. OU received the nation's No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament, a program first, and finished the campaign with a 43-20 mark, the second most wins since the Sooners won the 1994 National Championship. While OU's 32nd appearance in the NCAA Tournament fell short, the Sooners had plenty to celebrate throughout the season as they finished second in the Big 12 standings (a half game behind Texas).

Men's Basketball

If Jeff Capel or anyone else had lingering questions regarding Blake Griffin's abilities heading into 2008-09, the sophomore forward answered them emphatically by leading the Sooners to a 30-6 record – their fifth 30-win season in history – and to within an eyelash of the Final Four (they lost to eventual national champion North Carolina in the Elite Eight). OU's 13-3 record in Big 12 Conference play tied as its best in the 13-year history of the league, and a 25-1 start to the season resulted in a three-week No. 2 national ranking in February – the program's highest perch in 19 years. All Griffin did to help OU's cause was author one of the most impressive single seasons in recent college hoops memory and win every national player of the year honor.

Women's Basketball

Women's basketball had one of its most successful seasons in history, culminating at the program's second Final Four appearance in St. Louis in April 2009. Led by senior Courtney Paris, the first ever four-time All-American designated by the Associated Press and U.S. Basketball Writers Association, the Sooners matched a program record with 32 wins, including a record 20-game winning streak, and earned their sixth Big 12 regular-season title -- the third for OU in four seasons.

Cross Country

The women's cross country program was represented at the NCAA Championships for the fifth time in the last six years as sophomore Kelly Waters advanced to the title meet in Terre Haute, Ind. Waters finished 93rd at the meet, 16th among sophomores and ninth among Big 12 runners. Waters advanced to the meet after garnering All-Region honors with a 10th-place finish at the NCAA Midwest Regional. Waters also grabbed all-conference honors by finishing fifth at the Big 12 Championships. Classmate Jessica Engel finished 18th at the conference meet. The men's season was highlighted by a second-place finish at the Arkansas/Missouri Southern dual.

Football

Oklahoma won its sixth Big 12 Football Championship and became the first program to win the crown in three consecutive seasons, after earning the right as the first to win back-to-back titles a year ago. The Sooners led the nation with 54 points per game and became the first program to score 60 or more points in five straight games en route to totaling 700-plus on the year, an NCAA record in the modern era. Oklahoma made its 10th straight bowl appearance, its sixth in the BCS and fourth in the championship game. Quarterback Sam Bradford became OU's fifth Heisman Trophy winner and joined offensive guard Duke Robinson as consensus All-Americans. Oklahoma won 11 or more games for the eighth time in Bob Stoops' 10 seasons.

Men's Golf

The OU men's golf team recorded three top-five finishes during the season, including a win at the Macdonald Cup on Oct. 5 in New Haven, Conn. That title was OU's first tournament victory since the 2006 Big 12 Championship. Oklahoma defeated 13 other squads and inclement weather in its eight-shot triumph for the tournament crown. It was the fourth tournament title for the Sooners in Jim Ragan's final season at the helm. Ragan resigned in June and was replaced by Ryan Hybl, most recently an assistant coach for the Georgia Bulldogs.

Women's Golf

Paced by Kendall Dye's magnificent senior campaign, the women's golf team captured four top-five finishes in its 10 regular season tournaments. A successful October saw the Sooners take fifth place at the 13-team Windy City Collegiate Championships and third place at the 17-team Price's "Give 'Em Five" Invitational with a season-low 903 (+39).

Men's Gymnastics

Head Coach Mark Williams and the Oklahoma men's gymnastics team completed another championship year, finishing undefeated in the regular season and adding three national individual titles to its history. Steven Legendre proved ready to follow in Jonathan Horton's footsteps by capturing three individual national championships. The sophomore claimed the national all-around title and two individual titles on floor and vault to move past Bart Conner (three titles) in the OU record books. Legendre's five national titles in his two-year career left him one behind Horton's total.

ATHLETICS EXCELLENCE

NATIONAL TITLES ≈
OU freshman Will Claye broke his own U.S. Junior National record in claiming the NCAA title in the triple jump on his 18th birthday, while Steven Legendre won the all-around crown and NCAA titles on floor and vault, pushing his career tally to five.

Women's Gymnastics

Another year and it was another crown for the University of Oklahoma women's gymnastics squad. The Sooners won their second straight Big 12 title in 2009, marking the program's eighth overall conference championship. Head coach K.J. Kindler has guided the Sooners to Big 12 titles in two of her first three seasons. Oklahoma advanced to its sixth consecutive NCAA Championship, joining Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU and Utah as the only schools to advance to the event each year since 2004. Individually, Haley DeProspero (beam), Megan Ferguson (bars and beam) and Ashley Jackson (bars) became OU's latest conference event champions as Oklahoma clinched event titles on beam and floor at the Big 12 Championship.

Soccer

Sophomore Whitney Palmer became one of three Sooners in school history to collect Big 12 honors in multiple years after being named to the All-Big 12 second team in 2008. The Plano, Texas, native is also the first Sooner to lead the team outright in goals scored in back-to-back seasons since Jonette Coquat (1998-99). Palmer's eight goals tied for sixth in the Big 12 at the end of the regular season and tied for the third most in OU single-season history. The Sooners finished 2008 at 3-15-1 overall and placed ninth in the Big 12 standings with a 2-7-1 mark.

Softball

The OU softball team wrapped up the year 41-16 overall and 14-4 in Big 12 play. The Sooners won their fourth Big 12 regular season title and hosted an NCAA Regional for the second consecutive year. Junior Amber Flores was named Big 12 Player of the Year and head coach Patty Gasso earned her fourth Big 12 Coach of the Year honor. Flores was a first team All-America selection by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association and senior Samantha Ricketts was named to the second team.

Women's Tennis

The women's tennis team finished its first season under head coach David Mullins with a 9-14 overall record and a 3-9 Big 12 record. The Sooners faced a challenging schedule, playing 15 of their 23 matches on the road with nine matches against nationally ranked opponents.

Men's Tennis

The men's tennis team (12-10, 1-5 Big 12) began the spring season at No. 71 nationally and had three players ranked in the ITA top 75. OU ended the spring season with a national ranking of 44th as the Sooners faced one of the toughest schedules in the nation, one that included duals against 15 teams in the ITA top 75.

Track & Field

The fourth year under head coach Martin Smith marked a continued growth for the Sooners as OU added 13 All-Americans and one NCAA champion in 2009. On the conference front, the men and women combined to earn four Big 12 titles. The Sooners reached the double-digit mark in All-America honors for the third consecutive year with eight coming at the NCAA Outdoor Championships and five at the NCAA Indoor Championships. One of the All-Americans, freshman Will Claye, claimed the program's 13th NCAA title with a win in the triple jump while another, Ti'Anca Mock, recorded a sweep of the Big 12 Conference titles, claiming indoor and outdoor titles in the long jump. Another freshman, Luke Bryant, earned the Big 12 title in the discus.

Volleyball

With a young squad in 2008, the Sooners surpassed expectations. The team finished 12-16 overall, 8-12 in Big 12 play for a seventh-place finish. The Sooners started three freshmen and one transfer for the majority of the year, the only team in the league to have that young a starting group. OU recorded its one of its biggest win in school history on Oct. 29, upending then-third-ranked Texas in Austin. It was Oklahoma's first win over a top five opponent and the Sooners' second win in the series. The freshmen duo of Caitlin Higgins and Brianne Barker were named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team.

Wrestling

The University of Oklahoma wrestling squad tallied its most victories in seven seasons in head coach Jack Spates' 16th season at the helm as the 2009 squad finished with a 16-4 overall record. It marked the 14th straight season that Spates had led the Sooners to at least 10 wins. In OU's second dual of the season against Oklahoma City, the Sooner head coach picked up his 200th win overall in Norman.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA SOONERS

A STORIED AND ACTIVE TRADITION OF ATHLETICS EXCELLENCE

The University of Oklahoma athletics program boasts a tradition that few schools can rival. Over the years, Sooner squads have combined for 26 team national championships including eight in men's gymnastics, seven in football, seven in wrestling, two in baseball, one in men's golf and one in softball.

The Sooner tradition isn't something buried in the past. It inspires OU's student-athletes to greater heights every season. In 2008-09, the Sooner football team competed in its sixth BCS bowl in just seven years and, in 2008, the men's gymnastics team earned its fifth national title in seven seasons. In 2002, the Sooner men's and women's basketball teams carved their spot in history by advancing to the NCAA Final Four -- only the third time in NCAA history a school accomplished the feat with both teams in the same year. The OU women added another first in 2005-06, becoming the first team men's or women's, in Big 12 history to go 16-0 in league play.

Even more remarkable, during the 2001-02 season, the OU football and men's and women's basketball teams combined for 74 wins -- the most ever for those three sports by a Division I school in a single season. Oklahoma went 11-2 in football, 31-5 in men's basketball and 32-4 in women's basketball. The University of Oklahoma now stands alone in college sports' 30-30-10 club, created exclusively by OU.

Oklahoma's student-athletes continue to lead in the classroom and their actions in the community are exemplary. With the Great Expectations campaign, Oklahoma continues to build the finest facilities in the nation.

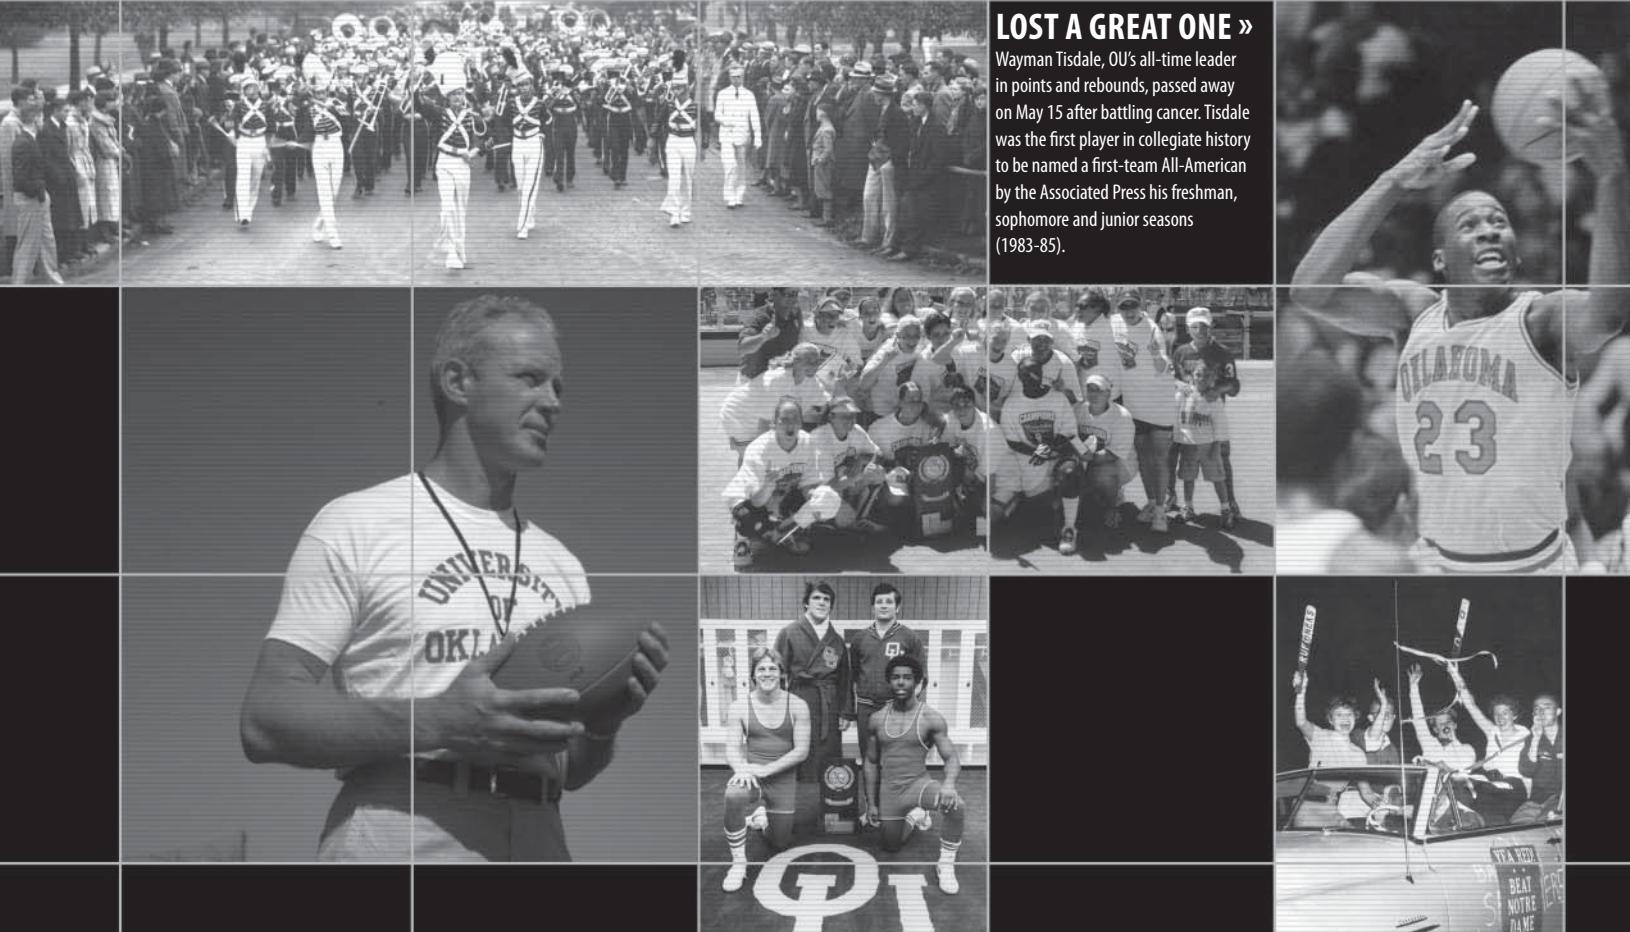

Each day, it becomes more evident that the University of Oklahoma has become one of the finest comprehensive athletics program in the country. When OU student-athletes raise the trophy of another championship, the hands responsible for hoisting that trophy symbolize thousands of Sooners around the globe.

The following represents a closer look at the tradition powering the Oklahoma Sooners:

- Oklahoma was playing football before it was a state. It's only one of two Division I football programs to win seven or more national championships. And OU is the only Division I football program ever to record 47 straight victories.
- Oklahoma gymnastics great Bart Conner won two NCAA all-around crowns and led the Sooners to two NCAA titles in 1977 and 1978. A three-time Olympian (1976, '80, '84), Conner won two gold medals in 1984. He was instrumental in the foundation of the International Gymnastics Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City.

The Oklahoma athletics department has experienced great success against its fiercest rivals in recent seasons. OU has claimed the last four Bedlam Bells from Oklahoma State, while also claiming six of the last nine wins in the Red River football rivalry with Texas.

SOME OF THE MOST RECOGNIZED TRADITIONS IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS

The University of Oklahoma has a long and storied history. The rich tradition has given birth to some of the most recognized pageantry in all of college athletics. Here is a look at the origin of some of the elements that create the wonderful atmosphere so unique to OU:

Sooners

College sports fans are hard-pressed to find a nickname that is as unique and as tied in to a state's history as a Sooner. The University of Oklahoma is the only school known as Sooners and those who claim that they are Sooners say it with pride.

The Oklahoma Territory opened with the Land Run of 1889. Settlers from across the globe, seeking free land, made their way to the prairies of the plains to stake their claim. One of the few rules to claiming a lot of land was that all participants were to start at the same time, on the boom of a cannon. All settlers who started then were labeled as "Boomers" and the ones who went early were called "Sooners."

OU athletic teams were called either Rough Riders or Boomers for 10 years before the current Sooner nickname emerged in 1908. The university actually derived its name from a pep club called "The Sooner Rooters." The success of University of Oklahoma athletics teams over the years has made the nickname synonymous with winning.

Boomer Sooner

One of the most recognizable college fight songs in the country, Boomer Sooner immediately evokes enthusiasm from OU fans and sends chills down the spines of those who dare to oppose them.

In 1905, Arthur M. Alden, a student in history and physiology whose father was a Norman jeweler, wrote the lyrics to the fight song, borrowing the tune from Yale University's Boola Boola but improvising the words. A year later, an addition was made to it from North Carolina's I'm a Tarheel Born and the two combined to form today's university fight song. Though the tune was first made known by Yale, the everlasting success of Sooner squads has taken the melody of Boomer Sooner to national popularity.

Boomer Sooner, Boomer Sooner
Boomer Sooner, Boomer Sooner
Boomer Sooner, Boomer Sooner
Boomer Sooner, OK U!
Oklahoma, Oklahoma
Oklahoma, Oklahoma
Oklahoma, Oklahoma
Oklahoma, OK U!
I'm a Sooner born and Sooner bred and when I die, I'll be Sooner dead
Rah Oklahoma, Rah Oklahoma
Rah Oklahoma, OK U!

Mascots

The Sooner Schooner is a Conestoga, or covered wagon, reminiscent of the mode of travel used by pioneers who settled Oklahoma. The Schooner is powered by matching white ponies named Boomer and Sooner, and it ventures onto Owen Field in a triumphant victory ride after OU scores. Although the Schooner was introduced in 1964, it did not become the official mascot until 1980. The Schooner is well-recognized by college athletics fans across the country and makes regular appearances at university functions.

During OU football and baseball games from 1915-1928, Mex the Dog wore a red sweater with a letter "O" on the side. Mex died of old age on April 30, 1928, and he was so popular among students and faculty that the university closed for his funeral and procession on May 2, 1928.

In the fall of 2005, the OU Athletics Department introduced costumed mascots. The new characters will act as an extension of the Sooner Schooner and its horses to be enjoyed by fans -- especially children -- at all OU athletics contests. The costumes feature traditional collegiate gear as part of their regular uniform, but will don team uniforms for football and men's and women's basketball. They were voted "Most Collegiate" by the Universal Cheerleading Association (UCA).

SOONER SPIRIT

Crimson and Cream

In the fall of 1895, Miss May Overstreet, the only woman on the faculty, was asked to chair a committee to select the colors of the university. The committee decided the colors should be crimson and cream and an elaborate display of the colors was draped above a platform before the student body.

The student body approved with great enthusiasm and immediately pennants, banners, badges and decorations of every description appeared on the streets, in the windows, at chapel, in classrooms, and all public places; however, local merchants could not supply the demand.

Even though the school colors have evolved to red and white over the years, you can ask any self-respecting Sooner what the colors are and they will proudly announce "Crimson and Cream."

On gamedays, a sea of crimson rolls through OU's home venues and all Sooners are urged to wear the official colors to show the rest of the country what school spirit and Sooner Pride is all about.

Pride of Oklahoma

The Pride of Oklahoma Marching Band has been supporting Sooner Spirit for more than a century. Unlike many other college bands, which began as military drill units, the Pride of Oklahoma had its beginnings as a pep band.

In the early years of the 1900s, both townspeople of Norman and students of OU participated in a band that played for football games. Professor John Merrill started the first band in 1901, which was composed mostly of townspeople and disbanded after each football season. Lloyd Curtis, a cornetist, founded the first continuous student band in 1904.

Today, the 300-member Pride of Oklahoma has members representing virtually every college and major on campus. The Pride of Oklahoma stands for excellence in musicianship, academics, school spirit, and commitment to our role in the surrounding community.

Boomer Sooner rings out at the end of each rehearsal, and that song is the defining element of the University of Oklahoma. Maybe that is why Sooner fans love the band so much. Not much can compare to the first "go-go" at a football game when the Pride of Oklahoma marches the interlocking OU down the field playing Boomer Sooner.

OU Chant

The OU Chant is a loyalty song that is sung before every home football game, before and after every men's and women's basketball games and at the end of many athletic and university functions.

Every fan who wears the official colors, each current student and student-athlete and all OU alumni are encouraged to stand and raise one finger in the air during the playing of the Chant -- a symbolic gesture that shows those who do not know what it means to be a Sooner, the greatness of the university and the unity between all Sooners.

The Chant was written in 1936 by Jessie Lone Clarkson Gilkey, who directed the OU girl's glee club from 1936 to 1938 and was voted Outstanding Faculty Woman in 1937.

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A

Our chant rolls on and on!

Thousands strong

Join heart and song

In alma mater's praise

Of campus beautiful by day and night

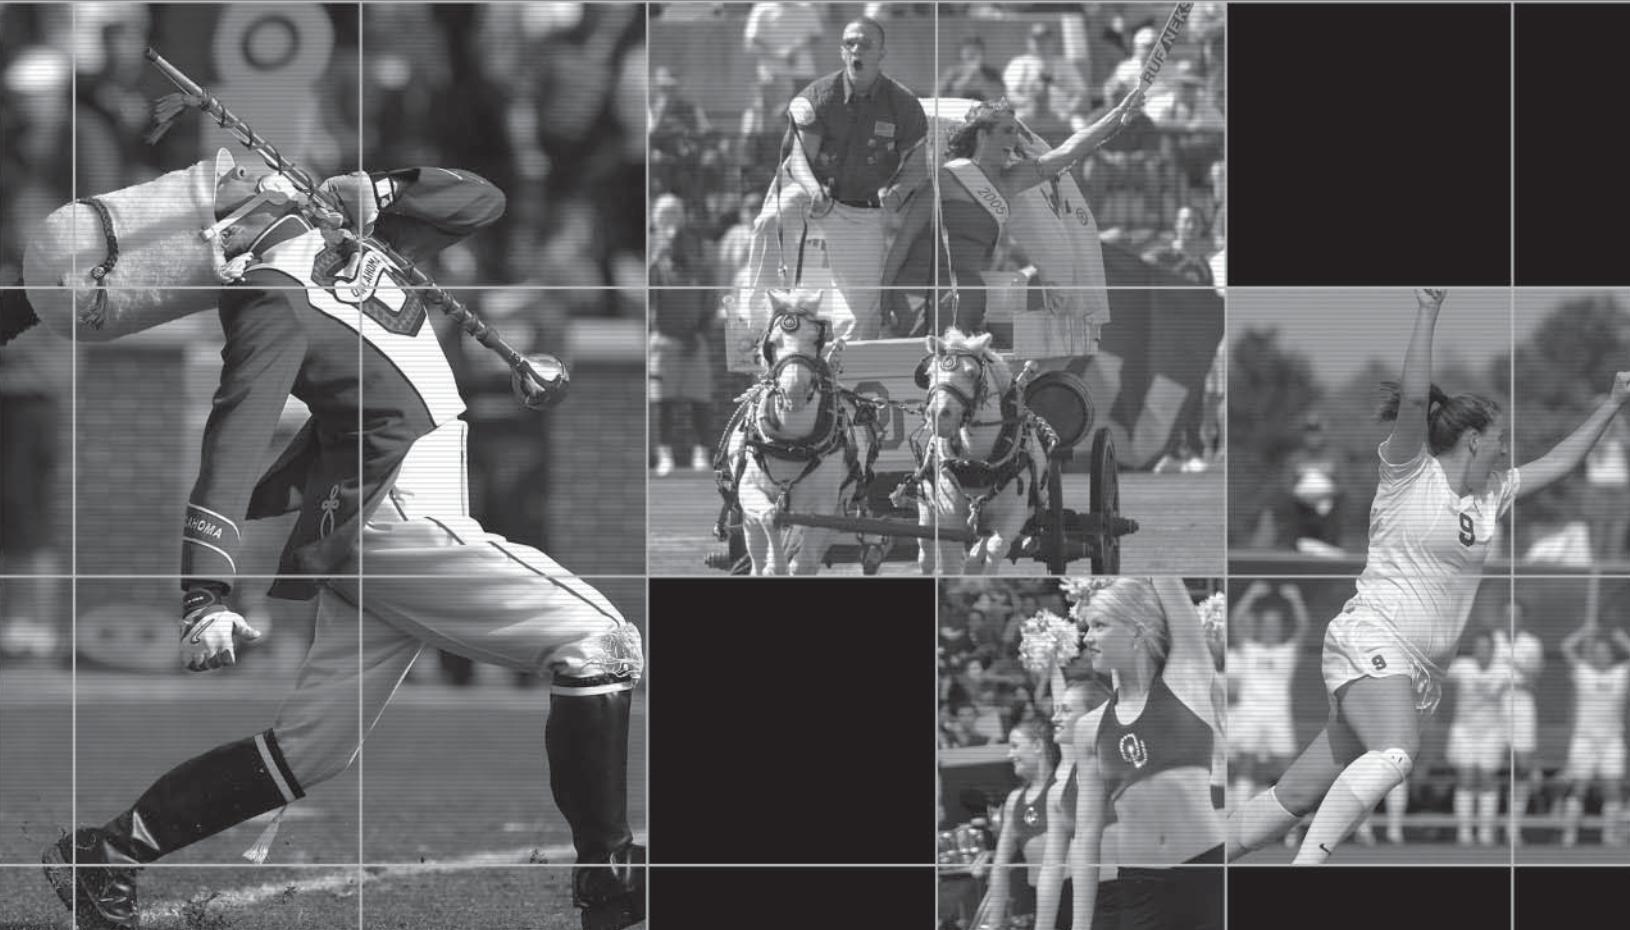

Of colors proudly gleaming Red and White

'Neath a western sky

OU's chant will never die.

Live on University!

SUPPORTING THE COMMUNITY THAT SUPPORTS OU

OU lives by a clear and strong motto in dealing with its student-athletes...Inspiring Champions for Today, Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow. To fulfill that promise, the athletics department and student-athletes take an active role in a number of community service projects. Sooner student-athletes are exposed to life outside of sports and school work with opportunities to serve and help others.

The Student Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) is a committee made up of student-athletes from all 21 intercollegiate athletic teams at the University of Oklahoma. The group coordinates community service programs for the Sooners each month.

"Giving back is something that benefits us as much as those we're helping," says OU head softball coach Patty Gasso. "It brings us back to reality and makes us realize that there is more to life than collegiate softball. I feel it's our duty to help out because of the role we're in as a Division I softball program."

The University of Oklahoma men's golf program holds an annual Clubs for Kids event in early May at the Lakeview Golf Course in Ardmore, Okla. Providing clubs and instruction, the event allows more than 1,000 southeastern Oklahoma youth an opportunity to interact with the OU golf team and coaches.

Oklahoma women's basketball teams have been extremely active in the community since head coach Sherri Coale's arrival in 1996. In addition to projects with the United Way, Coaches vs. Cancer, Central Oklahoma Habitat for Humanity and the Children's Miracle Network, Coale implemented the Sooner Big Sis Program which places women's basketball players at elementary schools in Norman to serve as mentors and teachers' aides.

"I want our student-athletes to learn through their experience here," says Coale, "how important it is to volunteer to be a part of whatever community they decide to reside in when their playing days are over."

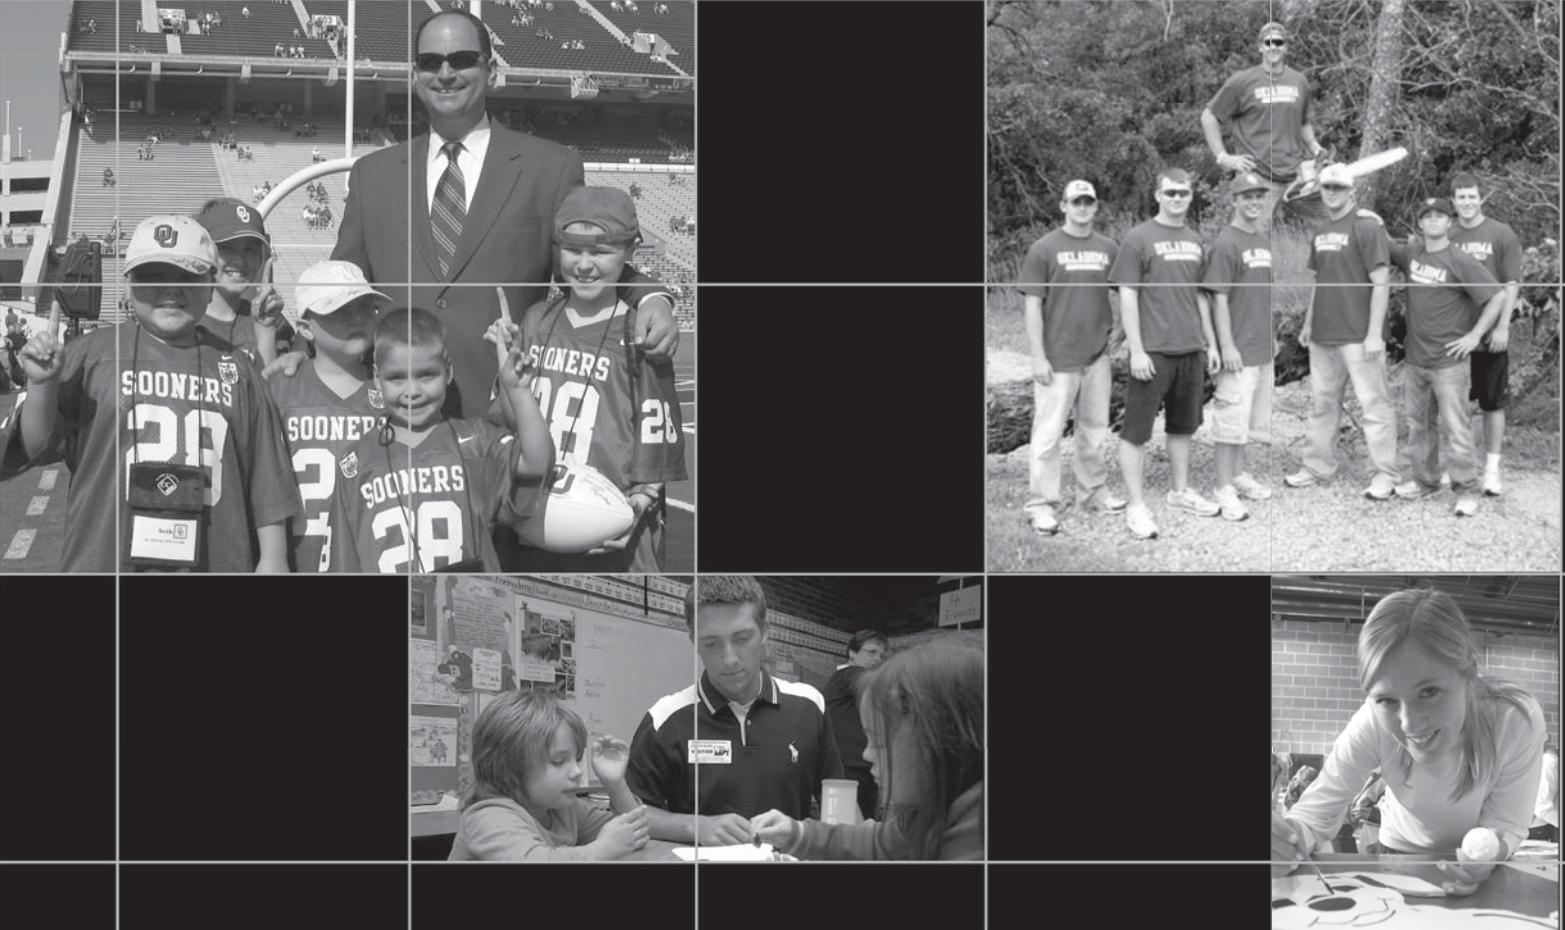

Oklahoma's student-athletes recognize that wearing the Crimson and Cream means representing a popular sports program and themselves as individuals. They are encouraged to respond to a public that adores them, while learning important lessons about making a positive impact in the lives of others and in the community in which they live.

Community service events for OU student-athletes from the past year included:

- Women's basketball players and coaches visited the Children's Hospital in Oklahoma City and participated in the Sooner Big Sis Program, an event in which each student-athlete selects a Norman elementary school class and visits the class weekly for an hour.
- The Oklahoma baseball team annually attends Willow Springs Boys Ranch to spend time with children and host a barbecue, in addition to visiting the "Miracle League" in Edmond and working with children at local elementary schools.
- The OU men's gymnastics team participated in Adopt-An-Angel, Safe Trick-Or-Treat and volunteered at various elementary schools in the Norman area. The team earned the Volunteer of the Year award by the Norman United Way and Junior League of Norman, for its work at Norman's Cleveland Elementary School.
- The OU Athletics Department participated in "Think if You Drink," a community campaign to help promote safe and responsible drinking among student-athletes and students on campus.
- The football program participated in Special Spectators for children with terminal illnesses by visiting and playing with the children.
- OU student-athletes and coaches made contact with more than 1,000 Norman Public Schools students in 20 schools as visiting readers, tutors, mentors and other special events including speaking engagements.
- The OU women's volleyball team visited Santa Fe High School, mentored children during lunch at Norman Lutheran Church, led FCA at Alcott Middle School, refereed and taught children's volleyball for Jumping Juniors and the Homeschool Association and spoke to the young adults at Tulsa High School.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- Oklahoma men's basketball has been involved with community organizations including the American Cancer Society, the American Lung Association, Boys and Girls Clubs, Boy Scouts of America, Citizens Caring for Children, Children's Miracle Network, Food and Shelter for Friends, Sooner Reading Program, the Oklahoma Blood Institute, the Oklahoma Committee to Prevent Child Abuse and Special Olympics, among others.
- Bridge Builders, the African American Student-Athlete Network, organized student outreach programs at Marcus Garvey Leadership Charter School and Moon Middle School helping to impart ideas and strategies to young people that will help them be successful in sports as well as life.
- Oklahoma women's basketball players supported the Special Olympics in Norman and Noble. The players were honorary hug givers and cheerleaders, encouraging Oklahoma's special stars. The Sooners also assisted the United Way in its Meals on Wheels program. OU delivered, sacked and decorated bags that contained food items for emergency use during the winter months.
- Sooner football players spent more than 300 hours involved in various community projects during the course of the year including the Clinic for Kids, visiting elementary schools and conducting the annual food drive.
- OU student-athletes hosted Safe Trick-or-Treat and provided candy, games and safe entertainment for hundreds of local children and their families at the Lloyd Noble Center.
- More than 450 hours of community service were put in by OU student-athletes through the Life Skills Program. Events included reading to school children, leading middle school FCA meetings, speaking to elementary school children, and visits to children's hospital.
- The football, basketball, baseball, and gymnastics teams were involved with Special Spectators, a national organization that invites seriously ill children to attend a sporting event and meet the players and coaches. The Sooners hosted more than 20 children from several Oklahoma City hospitals who attended sporting events on the OU campus.

SHOWCASING THE SOONERS TO A NATIONAL AUDIENCE

Oklahoma Athletics is a household name due to the overwhelming media attention that hovers around the Sooners. Writers and broadcasters representing the nation's most recognized media outlets regularly interact with Sooner players and coaches and routinely spend time in Norman.

And when they can't come to campus, those same observers keep tabs on OU thanks to extensive television coverage. The Sooners are at the very center of the college athletics and everybody is watching.

- In 2008, all 14 Oklahoma football games appeared on live television. OU enters the 2009 season with a streak of 85 consecutive televised games and has been shown on TV 295 times dating back to the 1953 season.
- During the 2008-09 season, the men's basketball team received live television coverage of 28 games, including 17 nationally televised contests.
- The women's basketball team was seen live for 26 games during the 2008-09 season, including national coverage for 16 contests.
- The OU baseball team received television coverage for eight regular-season baseball games in 2009, including five on Fox Sports Net's national coverage.
- Both the men's and women's gymnastics teams have had regular television coverage thanks to consistent top-10 rankings through the years. The nation focused its eyes on Norman in April 2006 when the Sooners hosted the NCAA Men's Gymnastics National Championships at Lloyd Noble Center, while the women were shown nationally bringing home the 2008 and 2009 Big 12 Championship crowns.
- The Women's College World Series is hosted in Oklahoma City each year, with all games shown live across the nation.

ROBIN SIEGFRIED & FAMILY STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COMPLEX

Oklahoma's weight training program is a pioneer in the development of strength and conditioning, and is a vital part of the Sooners' tradition of success. OU strength and conditioning coaches utilize their expertise along with a wide array of equipment and tests to produce national championship caliber athletes.

Evaluation, goal-oriented programs, supervision and state-of-the-art facilities help Oklahoma athletes become bigger, faster, stronger and more flexible. The Robin Siegfried & Family Strength and Conditioning Complex, located in the Barry Switzer Center, has 13,000 square feet to facilitate the intensive training of OU athletes. An additional facility, the Roy Williams Strength Training Facility, is available for workouts inside the Everest Training Center. The former Sooner football All-American and current Dallas Cowboy made the center possible through a gift to the University.

Jerry Schmidt, director of sports enhancement, says the complex is a state-of-the-art facility where athletes work closely with six full-time staff members. "Oklahoma recognizes the importance of conditioning," says Schmidt. "This facility is reflective of that commitment."

The objective of the strength and conditioning program is to ensure each student-athlete in every sport is provided with a sound in-season and off-season program. This program of activity includes strength, conditioning, flexibility and nutrition. A strength and conditioning coordinator for each sport is provided to assist athletes in reaching the highest possible training levels.

The OU strength and conditioning staff takes great pride in providing a very intensive program that helps maintain greater overall body strength and conditioning levels during the season. By maintaining strength in the muscles and connective tissues throughout the season, the potential for injuries decreases.

The off-season program is also extremely intensive. Speed, strength, power, agility, fundamentals and nutrition are addressed. The OU staff is committed to full compliance with NCAA rules concerning time allocation for student-athletes and voluntary workouts during off-season periods.

The staff's interaction with the nutritional consultants on campus is essential. The staff maintains an open channel of communication with the dining staff at the Wagner Dining Center. This interaction enables the strength and conditioning staff to ensure that OU athletes receive a winning edge with a sound nutrition program.

"Our goal is to get the student-athletes in their best condition," says Schmidt. "That condition will give Oklahoma an edge at the end of a game. Top of the line conditioning is what it takes to be a Sooner athlete. Running, lifting and good nutrition must be kept in a balance. All these components must be in place for an athlete to compete at the highest level."

Located at the south end of the Gaylord Family Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Barry Switzer Center houses administrative offices, the football locker room, the equipment room, the 8,000-square-foot Henry J. Freede Sports Medicine Facility and the 7,000-square-foot Touchdown Club Legends Lobby in addition to the Siegfried and Family Strength and Conditioning Complex.

STRENGTH AND MEDICAL TRAINING

HENRY J. FREDE, M.D., SPORTS MEDICINE FACILITY

The Oklahoma Athletics Department feels a strong responsibility to help its athletes reach and maintain their optimum health and achieve conditioning goals. For this reason, OU has developed excellent training and conditioning programs to lessen the possibility of injuries. However, should injuries occur, the department is committed to a comprehensive rehabilitation program.

Complete athletically-related medical services are provided to Oklahoma student-athletes by team physicians and OU's certified athletic trainers. The University of Oklahoma obtains the services of the best medical consultants available.

The base of operation for the Sooners' medical care is the state-of-the-art Henry J. Frede, M.D. Sports Medicine Center in the Barry Switzer Center.

Head athletic trainer Scott Anderson says the addition to the Barry Switzer Center has allowed the university to upgrade to a new edition of rehabilitation equipment that can best benefit the student-athletes.

From simple therobands to taping tables, the facility offers everything a school can have or hope to have. The Sooner training room is equipped to perform isokinetic joint evaluation for preventive medicine and for post-injury rehabilitation.

The therapy room is supplied with the latest modalities on the market.

"The addition of space is the greatest benefit," says Anderson. "This space allows for dedicated rehabilitation and consultation to the athletes. An option with the facility is the water rehabilitation area. The athlete stands in a pool of water that is adjusted to his or her own physical needs. Cameras are then placed where physicians can monitor the progress made by the athlete on his or her road to recovery."

A total team effort is the key to OU's efficiency in preventing, treating and rehabilitating injuries sustained by student-athletes. These measures keep Sooner athletes at their highest level of performance as they compete for championships.

"Sports medicine is a team effort," says Anderson. "The stated goal of athletic training at Oklahoma is, first of all, care for the student-athletes, thereby granting our sports a competitive advantage and ultimately greater esteem for the entire program.

"To that end we are blessed with a full complement of self-sacrificing medical professionals working on a regular basis with our athletic training staff."

THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA SOONERS

GREAT EXPECTATIONS AND BEYOND

With one of the greatest winning traditions in intercollegiate athletics, the University of Oklahoma, its players, coaches and fans understand the meaning of "Great Expectations." OU hopes for and expects great things from its athletics teams -- and the athletes and coaches expect the same from themselves. Time and time again, the Sooners have delivered on this expectation: 26 national championships, more than 200 conference titles and more than 1,000 All-Americans.

The University of Oklahoma's goal is to provide first-class facilities and resources for all the programs and endeavors sponsored by the institution. OU Athletics captures so much attention and interest that it requires the help and support of all Sooners to continue the tradition that all have enjoyed. With that in mind, OU launched "Great Expectations...The Campaign for Sooner Sports" in 1999.

"Great Expectations - The Campaign for Sooner Sports," a recently completed fund-raising effort, was about the continuation of a proud championship tradition. It was a five-year campaign launched with an eventual goal of $100 million, making possible an extraordinary era in new athletics facilities that has led to unprecedented athletic and academic success for OU student-athletes.

Among the accomplishments made possible by Great Expectations' donors: an expanded, renovated and more beautiful football stadium; two completely new facilities for men's and women's basketball at Lloyd Noble Center; new or renovated facilities for baseball, softball, volleyball, wrestling, softball, tennis, soccer and track and field; new strength and conditioning and sports medicine centers and an indoor training center.

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium

The $75 million expansion and renovation of OU's football stadium, completed in 2004, transformed a towering concrete structure into a beautiful facility featuring the brick and cast stone that characterize OU's historic buildings. The expansion added 8,000 seats, including 56 suites, on the east side. At the same time, the press box was remodeled and outfitted with several state-of-the-art features. This historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state, and following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

Everest Training Center

Considered one of the premier indoor facilities in the country, the Everest Training Center is a 74,000-square-foot center that includes a full-size playing field, simulated stadium lighting, a complete scoreboard with play clocks, LED 40-yard timing devices and a ceiling that hangs 65 feet above the playing surface to allow for all kicking and throwing drills.

McClendon Center for Intercollegiate Athletics

While the football gameday facilities in the Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium may be more familiar to OU supporters, the north side McClendon Center for Intercollegiate Athletics is one of the most vital areas for OU's entire athletics program as it is the center of student learning and athletics administration activities.

Robin Siegfried and Family Strength and Conditioning Complex

This 13,000-square-foot facility serves more than 500 athletes in OU's 21 sports. The state-of-the-art facility inside the Barry Switzer Center has been central to OU's success in recent years and helped develop OU's reputation as a pioneer in the strength and conditioning field.

Barry Switzer Center

A special feature is the Barry Switzer Center on the south side of the Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, where OU's storied football history is displayed, media conferences are held and recruits are entertained. The center recently experienced a significant upgrade to reflect this success and to fully realize the original vision as an exhibit area focusing on OU's greatest victories and most successful coaching eras.

Henry J. Freede, M.D., Sports Medicine Facility

This 8,000-square-foot sports medicine facility within the Barry Switzer Center treats athletes from all 21 sports, ensuring the best possible health for OU student-athletes through preventative medicine and post-injury treatment and rehabilitation.

Fred & Mary Eddy Jones Foundation Red Room

The Red Room is where OU football players meet as a team or offensive/defensive units to watch motivational videos before each game. OU's offense and defense post their goals for each week, and the Sooner coach holds his post-game press conference in this area.

Headington Family Tennis Center Expansion

The men's and women's tennis teams will compete in one of the finest indoor venues in the country in 2009. Highlights of the new, 55,000 square-foot facility include six air-conditioned courts, championship-quality lighting and surface, and approximately 375 chair-back seats for spectators, which are elevated between the courts. The programs opened a 12-court outdoor championship facility in 2001 during the Great Expectations campaign and was particularly notable because it was donations exclusively from tennis lettermen who made the new courts possible.

John Crain Field at the OU Soccer Complex

The University of Oklahoma Athletics Department and the soccer program enjoyed a $4.5 million expansion to the soccer stadium in 2006. In addition to a press box and a permanent grandstand, a multi-use building is located between John Crain Field at the OU Soccer Complex and the Headington Family Tennis Center at the corner of Chautauqua Avenue and Imhoff Road. The multi-purpose complex includes locker rooms, meeting and video rooms and offices for the student-athletes and coaches.

Softball Indoor Facility

The OU softball team opened an indoor hitting facility in January 2009. The $1 million, 6,020 square-foot project includes a 65' x 65' infield with Hilltopper infield dirt. The infield accommodates four hitting lanes. In addition to the practice area, storage for the team and grounds crew is also included. In 2002, the Robert E. Young and Family Softball Locker Room was added to the Softball Complex, giving the team a spacious and comfortable gathering place for preparation and relaxation. In 2003, the softball field was named in honor of retired softball coach and women's administrator Marita Hynes.

Baseball Practice Facility

With an estimated cost of $1 million, the OU baseball team had an indoor hitting facility and practice infield added to L. Dale Mitchell Park prior to the 2009 season. The 5,160-square-foot facility will contain three full-size hitting/pitching lanes and is air conditioned and heated. Previous renovations to L.

Dale Mitchell Park were completed in 2001 when the press box underwent state-of-the-art improvements including four suites and a press area, the Mike Treps Media Room. The facility originally opened in 1982.

John Jacobs Track and Field Complex

The project, which was completed in spring 2004, included a 25,000-square-foot building connecting the Mosier Indoor Practice Facility with the Everest Training Center. This new building includes track and field locker rooms, a sports medicine room and a video teaching room. The John Jacobs Track was altered and re-surfaced to include European Oval turns for a faster track and nine 48-inch wide lanes. Other improvements include upgrades of field event areas, placing them directionally north/south and east/west to take advantage of wind conditions; spectator seating for 2,000; new restrooms and concessions; and the installation of championship lighting.

Howard McCasland Field House

The Field House is one of OU's most historic buildings. Many OU alumni fondly recall the field house as the home of OU's basketball program, which it was until Lloyd Noble Center opened in 1975. In 2005, the Field House underwent a $6 million facelift that included a complete interior renovation comprised of a resanded and repainted floor with four efficient practice courts and chair-back seating that offers fans more comfort. In addition, the entire facility was repainted and improvements were made to the HVAC system, sound system, lighting and scoreboards. The Sooners have also enjoyed renovations done to the training room as well as an upgrade to both the volleyball and wrestling locker rooms.

Wrestling Practice Facility

Connected to the McCasland Field House, the Athletics Department launched a $2.4 million project in 2008. The bulk of the construction will include a $1.3 million addition to the Port Robertson Wrestling Center. The facility serves as the practice venue for the Sooner wrestling team.

Mary Jane Noble Women's Basketball Center

In 1975, the Samuel Roberts Noble Foundation of Ardmore made the first million-dollar gift in OU history with its contribution to OU's campaign to build a multi-purpose arena. In 1999, the foundation made another gift to support the renovation of the original center, adding first-class matching facilities for the men's and women's basketball teams. The Lloyd Noble Center addition includes two new full-sized practice courts for the men's and women's basketball teams.

Bob and Ann Coleman Men's Basketball Center

The nearly 63,000-square-feet Lloyd Noble Center addition offers a matched set of men's and women's facilities, including full-sized practice courts, new team and coaches' locker rooms, training rooms and steam/spa/sauna rooms. Office facilities and conference rooms provide views of the practice courts as special features and a shared weight training facility was created. The Kerr-McGee Courtside Club gives fans a venue for special events.

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 Conference has established a consistent level of national success on the field and in the classroom as it enters its 14th season in 2009-10. Since it began play in 1996-97, the Conference can boast of 34 team crowns and over 400 individual NCAA Championships. The success continued through 2008-09 as Texas A&M captured national titles in men's golf as well as men's and women's outdoor track & field. The league placed two teams in the Bowl Championship Series for the fifth time and had a team play for the BCS National Championship for the sixth season. In addition, two volleyball teams advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA Championship and Oklahoma played in the Women's Final Four. Missouri softball and Texas baseball punched tickets to the College World Series.

Among individual honors, Sally Kipyego (Texas Tech) became the first NCAA Division I female or male runner to win three consecutive cross country national championships. She was named the Honda Award winner for the third season as the nation's top female cross country athlete, becoming just the eighth athlete to win the award three times in any sport. Jenny Barringer (Colorado) claimed the Honda Award for Track & Field while Oleksandr Nedovyesov (Oklahoma State) was named ITA/Campbell's Tennis Player of the Year.

For the fourth time in its 13-year history a Big 12 student-athlete won the Heisman Trophy. The Big 12 also established a high-water mark, as for the first time in the 74-year history of the Heisman Trophy four of the top five vote-getters hailed from the same conference, including award-winner Sam Bradford (Oklahoma).

Over the past five seasons a total of 13 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including each of the past 12 seasons.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with its six appearances in BCS title games. League squads have played for the football national championship six times in the last nine years with berths in 16 BCS games overall, including two each in 2007 and 2008. The Big 12 led all conferences with five teams ranked in the final 2008 BCS Standings. In addition, an all-time high nine league players earned consensus All-America recognition this past season, more than any other conference.

In basketball, 10 women's and nine men's teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past eight seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences. The six men's Final Four participants since 2002 are tied for the most of any conference. Numerous national honors have been won by basketball student-athletes during the league's history. The Big 12 had a national player of the year honoree for the third straight year when Blake Griffin (Oklahoma) was the consensus winner in 2008-09. Courtney Paris (Oklahoma) gave the conference a consensus All-America selection in women's basketball for the ninth straight season.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Big 12 student-athletes also do well in garnering national academic recognition. Sarah Pavan (Nebraska) was named Academic All-America of the Year in volleyball in 2006 and 2007 by ESPN The Magazine and College Sports Information Directors of America with a 4.0 grade-point average in Biochemistry. She also won the national academic honor presented for all sports in 2006-07 and was named recipient of the prestigious 2006-07 Honda-Broderick Award as Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year. She is the first athlete since the Big 12 was formed to earn the accolade. In its history, the conference has over 330 academic honorees, averaging more than 25 each season.

The Big 12 can boast of other stories that combine on and off the field success. Patience Knight (Texas Tech) was the recipient of the Honda Inspiration Award in 2008, given to an outstanding female college athlete who overcomes adversity to excel in her sport. She was diagnosed with a cancerous tumor in 2007, but rebounded to win All-America honors at the 2008 NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gault Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 225 scholars have received over 1.3 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 13 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 45 million people and television households in 18 of the top 100 markets within its geographic footprint. The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

In the last several years the Big 12 has increased its bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN and FSN. Most recently, the league renewed and expanded its multi-year arrangement with ABC/ESPN, Inc. The new contract began in 2008-09.

In its first 13 years, the Conference has distributed more than $1.1 billion to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

A UNIVERSITY TOWN WITH A CHAMPIONSHIP SPIRIT

Norman was recently named by Money Magazine as No. 6 of America's Best Places to Live among "small" cities or locations with a population between 50,000 and 300,000.

Norman is an ever-changing city of nearly 100,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma landrush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and smart city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents desired to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit." Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletic events.

In the last five years alone, Norman has served as host of the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship, an NCAA men's golf regional, NCAA softball regionals, NCAA men's and women's gymnastics regionals, NCAA women's tennis regionals, NCAA track and field regional and the NCAA women's basketball regionals. In addition, the Big 12 Conference Men's and Women's Tennis, Track and Field, Wrestling, Women's Golf, and Women's Gymnastics Championships were held in Norman.

Cultural activities are unlimited in Norman, making it the ideal backdrop for the University of Oklahoma. As home to people of all ethnic and educational backgrounds, the city has something to offer everyone. Norman is home to a variety of enriching events and attractions, including the Sooner Theater, which hosts a series of entertaining theatrical performances produced by locally-based talent and touring companies.

The city also showcases local and regional artists in its annual May Fair. In addition, through the university's School of Drama, School of Dance and the School of Music, stage productions are offered year round.

The Medieval Fair has become a springtime tradition in Norman as people from around the country converge on the city for one weekend each April to partake in a fascinating look back in time. Each year, an area park is transformed into a festival of sights, sounds and tastes straight from the Middle Ages. Knights joust, jesters entertain and story tellers spin tales of a magical time in history.

The $44 million Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History, a state-of-the-art facility designed to display a collection of historical and natural science items that trace the southwest's development since prehistoric times, opened in May 2000. History buffs will also enjoy the Cleveland County Historical House which holds exhibits relating to the development of this area of the state.

For art enthusiasts, the Fred Jones Jr. Memorial Art Center houses permanent collections, nationally and world-renowned traveling exhibits as well as a yearly student art show. The museum has recently added the Weitzenhoffer Collection of French Impressionist paintings -- the single most important gift of art ever given to a U.S. public university.

Maintaining a progressive approach to the future while remembering its history, Norman continues to be a well-balanced community, proud to be the home of the University of Oklahoma.

NORMAN AND OKLAHOMA CITY

COOL

The average annual temperature in Norman is a cool 70 degrees. The area enjoys a temperate climate with mild winters and four distinct seasons with a warm spring and fall.

RANKED NO. 6

Norman was recently ranked No. 6 of America's Best Places to Live by Money Magazine among "small" cities or locations with a population between 50,000 and 300,000.

100,000

Norman is the third largest city in the state with nearly 100,000 residents. Despite its growth, the city nurtures and maintains its small, college town atmosphere.

Oklahoma City

Oklahoma City, the capital of Oklahoma, is located just 18 miles from the Norman campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position as the center of the state. It is because of this central location that Oklahoma City has become known as the home of America's Western heritage. Whether adventure, history, culture or sports, Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country.

Oklahoma City was born on the afternoon of April 22, 1889, when the central portion of what is now Oklahoma was opened to settlement by presidential proclamation. Thousands crossed the borders of "unassigned lands" at the sound of gunfire at high noon. Never before or since has such a "run" occurred anywhere on the earth.

By the time the dust had settled on that historic day, many people had staked their claim at "Oklahoma Station," an area which was destined to become Oklahoma City, a leading city in America. In 1911, Oklahoma City officially became the capital after a statewide election moved the state seal from Guthrie.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It is home of an NBA team, two semi-professional sports teams and the host of the NCAA Women College Softball World Series and Big 12 Softball Championship. The Oklahoma RedHawks, 1996 American Association champions (then named the Oklahoma City 89ers), are the Triple-A baseball affiliate of the Texas Rangers. The team plays in the 13,066-seat AT&T Bricktown Ballpark, one of the plunkest venues in all of minor league sports. The ballpark served as host to a 2004 NCAA baseball regional and the 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008 Big 12 Baseball Championships.

In addition, the city has hosted numerous PGA and Senior PGA Tour events.

Tulsa

Tulsa, the state's second largest city, is located 100 miles to the northeast of Norman in the heart of Oklahoma's Green Country. Ask people to describe Tulsa, and you'll likely get many different answers. It was a city forever changed by the discovery of oil in 1901. It is home to art deco treasures and nationally renowned museums. Its African-American heritage left its mark, in both the business and music worlds. And it's a city of nostalgia and special memories for countless Americans due to its location on historic Route 66.

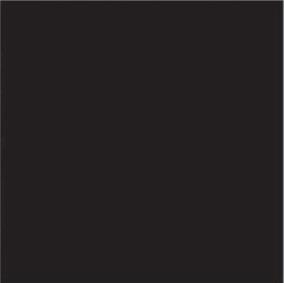

Tulsa is a cosmopolitan town that appeals to both young families and retirees. National touring exhibitions can be seen at the Philbrook Museum of Art, which was recently featured on the television program America's Castles. For great western art, check out the Gilcrease Museum, and music legends are commemorated at Oklahoma's Jazz Hall of Fame. Other unique attractions worth a stop include the Elsing Museum, Ida Dennie Willis Museum of Miniatures, Dolls & Toys, Tulsa Air and Space Center and the Fenster Museum of Jewish Art.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

OKLAHOMA LOOKING TO CONTINUE 2008 LATE-SEASON SURGE

One team goal this year is the same as in years past. Only this time around, the desire to get back to the NCAA Tournament is stronger than ever.

For a team that fell two wins shy of consideration in 2008, closing the door on an emotional whirlwind of a season means opening a new one to a very promising 2009.

A team that was so young in 2008 has a renewed, fresh mindset. The freshmen from a year ago are all sophomores now. Sophomores with experience.

Oklahoma returns all six position starters and four different team statistical leaders from 2008. Of the 10 returning, just two are seniors.

All three juniors play the same position, providing ample depth at middle blocker. While the returning setters bring experience as sophomores, the defensive specialists want to prove that classification is just a word.

Two players from the 2008 team were honored for their play last year. Sophomores Brianne Barker and Caitlin Higgins were named to the All-Big 12 Freshman team. Higgins earned the Sports Imports/AVCA National Player of the Week award last year, as well.

Junior Francie Ekwerekwu and senior Bridget Laplante also return and are looking to punch another ticket to the postseason.

Not only did the team get much needed experience in the fall, the returning players had a promising spring in preparation for the 2009 campaign.

That experience will be needed as the Sooners play in the toughest conference in the country. At Oklahoma, the philosophy is simple. If you want to be the best, play the best.

Challenging schedules are the norm and playing in the Big 12 means being at the top of your game every game.

The Sooners open 2009 on the road. OU will not play a home game until Sept. 19. Even then, Oklahoma will have to go up against non-conference opponents away from home.

The Sooners face Rice, North Carolina and Wichita State as a part of the pre-conference slate.

Oklahoma opens Big 12 play against Missouri before traveling to Kansas and Colorado. OU then welcomes Nebraska, Texas Tech and Iowa State before facing Texas in Austin.

OU and Baylor scramble in Norman before the Sooners take on Texas A&M to end the first half of the conference schedule.

As if it was easy the first time around, in the Big 12 teams get to play through for a second time. OU opens the second half of conference play on the road at Nebraska before hosting Colorado and Kansas State. The Sooners face Baylor in Waco and Kansas at home before hitting the road to play Missouri and Tech. OU closes out the final homestand with Texas A&M and Texas. The regular season finale is at Iowa State.

A tough schedule and needed experience give the Sooners all the tools necessary to pick up where they left off last season and finish the journey once and for all.

SETTERS

RETURNERS

	Soph.	5-9	9.32 aps	2.85 dps
Kylie Cowan	Soph.	5-10	0.15 aps	0.15 sas

Sophomore Brianne Barker returns after a stellar freshman season. The Amarillo, Texas, native was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team and set an Oklahoma freshman record with 1,035 assists. While last year proved to be a learning experience for Barker, she looks to take command on the floor this season after tweaking her technique during the spring.

As the cornerstone of the offense, Barker's ability to not only set up the offense but defend made her a key component during the 2008 season. Her defensive dig total grew as the season went on. She ended the year averaging 2.85 per set, third best on the team.

Playing behind Barker, sophomore Kylie Cowan saw limited time in 2008. Cowan played in 13 sets, recording two service aces in those four-match appearances.

ATTACKERS

RETURNERS

	Sr.	6-0	2.28 kps	3.17 dps
Caitlin Higgins	Soph.	6-0	2.49 kps	2.84 dps
Suzy Boulavsky	Soph.	6-1	1.79 kps	0.67 bps
Jackie Fotu	Sr.	6-1	0.97 kps	0.51 bps

NEWCOMERS

	Fr.	6-2	Blue Springs, Mo.
Morgan Reynolds	Fr.	6-2	Blue Springs, Mo.

Given that the attacking corps of Oklahoma's offense only features one starting senior, the future is bright for a talented group of players. Senior Bridget Laplante leads the group that gave OU plenty of spark during the 2008 season.

Laplante averaged 2.28 kills per set in 2008 and was second on the team with 3.17 digs per set. Laplante's presence was one felt all over the floor. She recorded eight service aces on the season and totaled 29 blocks.

One of the most electrifying players on the floor for Oklahoma in 2009 will be sophomore Caitlin Higgins. The outside hitter from Amarillo, Texas, should once again showcase her powerful ability to strike from anywhere on the floor.

Higgins earned Big 12 All-Freshman honors in 2008 but before then, she became the first Sooner to earn the Sports Imports/AVCA National Player of the Week honor on November 4. Higgins was second on the team in kills with 2.49 per set and averaged 2.84 digs per set for good measure.

One player who opened eyes last season was right side/outside hitter Suzy Boulavsky. Boulavsky made waves after being inserted into the lineup during the Trojan Invitational in Los Angeles. Playing in 24 matches, Boulavsky averaged 1.79 kills per set and provided 60 total blocks on the year.

OU's other senior, Jackie Fotu, hopes to see playing time after an off-season injury. Fotu started three matches early in the 2008 season and saw action in 12 total. She averaged 0.51 blocks per set in that time.

Freshman Morgan Reynolds will contend for playing time this season. Reynolds brings an impressive list of accomplishments to Norman. Hailing from Blue Springs, Mo., Reynolds led Blue Springs High School to three straight Suburban Conference Big Seven championships. She was a first team all-state selection in 2008 and participated in the 2008 Missouri/Kansas All-Star game.

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

RETURNERS

	Jr.	5-11	2.66 kps	0.81 bps
Sarah Freudenrich	Jr.	6-4	2.12 kps	0.85 bps
Chrissy Disarro	Jr.	6-1	1.60 kps	1.27 bps

The defenders of the net for Oklahoma happen to have a pretty good strike, too. Featuring perhaps the most dominant player in the lineup and, for sure, the tallest, the middle blockers add a different dimension of protection and attack to the offense.

Perhaps the most veteran group on the team, the middle blockers are all juniors with significant playing time to their credit.

Considered to be the most explosive player on the floor, junior Francie Ekwerekwu returns as OU's kills leader. Ekwerekwu delivered the swing that gave the Sooners their first-ever win in Austin last season. The Arlington, Texas, native averaged 2.66 kills per set and 0.81 blocks. Of her 74 total blocks, 14 of those solo blocks.

The tallest player on the team, Broken Arrow's Sarah Freudenrich, looks to continue her successful streak from 2008.

After getting a chance to play off the bench, Freudenrich earned her way into the starting lineup. She ended the season with a 2.12 kills per set and 0.85 blocks per set, after playing in only 15 matches. She earned Big 12 Rookie of the Week honors on October 22.

Chrissy Disarro averaged 1.60 kills and 1.27 blocks per set in 21 matches played during 2008. Disarro's power punch provides depth behind Ekwerekwu and Freudenrich.

DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS

RETURNERS

Danielle Alva	Soph.	5-6	1.62 dps	0.11 sas
---------------	-------	-----	----------	----------

NEWCOMERS

Maria Fernanda	Fr.	5-7	Rio Piedras, P.R.
Alex Edwards	Fr.	5-4	Katy, Texas

The youngest group on the team looks to play like three-year veterans as a sophomore and two freshmen take the reins as the team's defensive specialists.

Sophomore Danielle Alva saw limited playing time in 2008, but recorded 1.23 digs per set in 14 matches played.

Freshman Maria Fernanda brings a ton of national team experience from Puerto Rico. The Puerto Rican U20 National Team member won a silver medal at the 2007 Central American and Caribbean School Sport Games and holds all-star awards from Copa Primera Hora (2006) and Copa El Nuevo Día (2007).

Alex Edwards, a freshman from Katy, Texas, earned two varsity letters in high school at the DS position and had 54 service aces and 280 digs as a senior.

SANTIAGO RESTREPO

Head Coach | Sixth Season | East Stroudsburg (1986)

Entering his sixth season as the head coach at the University of Oklahoma, Santiago Restrepo has brought the program to new heights in just five seasons at the helm of the program. Pairing his international recruiting with his hard-working, blue collar coaching style, Restrepo has made a name for Oklahoma within the volleyball community.

The program felt Restrepo's impact as soon as he arrived on campus from his previous coaching stop at Southern Mississippi. In his first season at the helm of the Sooner program, he led the 2004 OU squad to a 12-17 record. No Sooner squad had produced a better record since the 1997 squad that reached the NCAA Tournament.

While the 2004 season caught many people's eye, nobody would predict what would happen two years later as Restrepo led the Sooners to the best season in school history. The 2006 season broke plenty of OU records and sparked momentum for the 2007 season.

Restrepo earned Big 12 and Regional Coach of the Year honors and was recognized by CVU.com as its National Coach of the Year as he led the Sooners to the best one-year turnaround in Big 12 history. Behind Restrepo's leadership, the Sooners recorded the best winning percentage in school history with a 28-6 record (.824) and finished a program-best second in the Big 12 Conference race (17-3).

Restrepo's successful 2006 season included OU's first-ever win over Texas in the series history as well as entry into the 2006 NCAA Tournament for only the fourth time in school history and the program's second Sweet 16 trip. Oklahoma finished the season as one of the best in the country with a No. 12 final ranking, its highest in history.

The Oklahoma players also felt the presence of Restrepo, individually, as all five seniors of the 2006 class earned All-Big 12 recognition while Joanna Schmitt and Eliane Santos became the second and third All-Americans in school history.

OU did not disappoint in 2007, either. After being picked ninth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Sooners advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. It also marked the second time in OU history that the Sooners made back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

Senior outside hitter Sarah Weiland represented OU on the All-Big 12 honorable mention team, while freshman Francie Ekwerekwu was named to the All-Big 12 freshman team. For their efforts in the classroom, five Sooners earned Academic All-Big 12 honors and three were named Academic All-District.

The history-making 2006 and 2007 seasons were remarkable, considering they followed a 2005 season that saw the Sooners finish 7-22.

However, Restrepo was getting his tools in place in 2005 for the historic next year as his recruiting skills shined with the addition of juco transfer Santos. In her junior season, Santos made her mark on Big 12 volleyball, finishing in the top five in the conference in blocks and kills and was named one of Collegiate Volleyball Update's top-five blockers in the country.

In 2008, he coached Brianne Barker and Caitlin Higgins to All-Big 12 Freshman team honors. Higgins became the first Oklahoma player to earn the Sports Imports/American Volleyball Coaches Association Division I National Player of the Week on Nov. 4.

Restrepo was named the fourth head coach in OU volleyball history on January 26, 2004. During the search process, Restrepo's youngest son, Javier Santiago, passed away from leukemia in July 2009 at the age of four. To find out what you can do to help promote childhood cancer awareness, visit The Children's Hospital at OU Medical Center at www.OUMedicine.com.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT SANTIAGO RESTREPO

"Santiago's love of the game and his players are evident in his demeanor and his body language. He exemplifies the Latin temperament: he is passionate, compassionate, and loyal to a fault. Ask any Big 12 referee about his passion for getting things right and his loyalty to his players. No one will fight harder or more tirelessly than Santiago Restrepo."

He is hard nosed and will make you work hard in order to build you up to reach greater heights. He will battle with you, for you, and even against you as a coach just to make you better. His expectations are greater, much greater, than what the players expect of themselves and his faith in them often exceed those of these player's parents. He is the first to get in your face to make you understand what you did wrong, and he is the first to laugh in happiness or cry in sorrow with his players.

"He is a stickler for details, for doing things the right way. There aren't very many pure trainers in volleyball anymore; he is a pure trainer. There is a method to his madness and if you watched his teams, they will all play with technical excellence, emotional urgency, and a competitive fire that is second to none. They play like Santiago would play."

"No one who has ever come within his orbit has ever come away unaffected by him."

PETE WUNG

Co-Founder, St. Louis EliteVolleyball Club | St. Louis, Mo.

"Santiago is an amazing coach and person. He has such a great understanding of the game, and passion for it. He knows how to motivate his players and teaches them to BELIEVE in their ability and to go beyond their comfort zone. That is where he helps you to find a level of determination, competitiveness, and drive you have never tapped into. He always believes in you and pushes you no matter what."

LAURA RISLEY MUDD

Former player, St. Louis

"As a player, I always knew Santiago had my best interest at heart, not as players or students; but a young person trying to grow and shape my life. To outsiders, he probably seemed stubborn, demanding, and loud, but more than that he is caring, understanding, and always willing to give you a second chance. Santiago completely changed my experience at USM. Our whole program shifted. He saw something in us that we didn't because within two years, we were a totally different team. He was always pushing harder and expecting more; helping us realize our potential."

BRIDGET FILES HERRIN

Former player, Southern Mississippi

OU Athletics Director Joe Castiglione was set on making a program-changing hire that fit perfectly into the values of the university.

The then-reigning Conference USA Coach of the Year, Restrepo, left Southern Mississippi to fulfill a dream of coaching in the Big 12.

In Restrepo's final season at Southern Miss, he led his 2003 team to a program-best 27-6 record.

That squad reeled off three winning streaks of at least six matches, including one eight-win string, the longest in school history. Three Golden Eagle players garnered All-Conference USA honors during Restrepo's three-year tenure, including two in his final season. He left Southern Miss with a conference record of 52-40 (.565) and an overall mark of 127-72 (.638).

Perhaps the most remarkable part of the Golden Eagles' 27-win season is that it came just two years after a nine-win campaign. His first season with Southern Miss, 2001, was difficult by all accounts. The team went 9-19 and finished 11th in Conference USA. One recruiting class later, his 2002 team improved to 16-15 and finished the conference season in eighth place. The team was sold on Restrepo's coaching plan and tremendous success was around the corner in 2003.

Prior to coaching at Southern Miss, Restrepo served three seasons (1998-2000) as an assistant coach at Saint Louis University under Marilyn Nolen. Restrepo brought a tough training regimen to the Billiken program in 1998, and his dedication and work sparked an immediate improvement.

That year, Saint Louis posted its fourth best single-season winning percentage in school history at 21-7 (.750). In 2000, he helped the Billikens to 23 victories, the most since 1996. A native of Bogota, Colombia, Restrepo served as the women's head coach at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University from 1995-97.

He led the Warriors to a 21-11 record and a semifinal finish in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) in his first season in the league. East Stroudsburg posted its best record in school history with a 32-2 mark in 1996. For his team's efforts, Restrepo was named PSAC Coach of the Year. During his tenure, he led ESU to a 75-32 (.735) overall record.

A former NCAA Division I All-American at East Stroudsburg, Restrepo was also a four-time all-conference selection. He earned team Most Valuable Player honors all four years and was the co-winner of the Senior Athlete Award in 1986. He was inducted into the East Stroudsburg Hall of Fame in 2004.

Following his collegiate career, Restrepo played one season professionally in France and returned to the United States where he played on the American Volleyball Players Pro Beach Tour.

He earned a 3A player rating on the AVP tour and had the opportunity to play against some of the giants of professional beach volleyball, including Karch Kiraly, Sinjin Smith, Randy Stoklos and Kent Steffes.

Highly involved in the international circuit and USA Volleyball, Restrepo served as co-head coach of one of two USA Volleyball under-22 select teams that toured Argentina in June 2005 and 2006.

Restrepo and his wife, the former Heidi Nichols, have two sons, Diego Ignacio and Javier Santiago.

KELLY FILES

Assistant Coach | Sixth Season | Southern Mississippi (2002)

When Santiago Restrepo accepted the head coaching position at the University of Oklahoma, the first thing he did was ensure that Kelly Files would be joining him in Norman. Files, who played under Restrepo at Southern Miss, was key in the emergence of the Golden Eagles as a Conference USA and regional power.

Files is entering her sixth season at Oklahoma and seventh as an assistant coach. Her responsibilities with the Sooner program include recruiting, conditioning, on-the-floor coaching and administrative work.

"Kelly brings a lot to the table," said Restrepo. "She is an extremely hard worker, a great young teacher and a great recruiter. She is a great asset to our program because she relates very well to student-athletes."

In 2003, Files accepted her first full-time coaching position at her alma mater, Southern Miss, where she had previously served as a graduate assistant.

Following an outstanding playing career at Southern Miss, Files finished her career ranked among the top 10 leaders in several statistical categories. She was a four-year starter and letterwinner and led the team in kills, service aces and blocks her final two seasons. During her playing career, she was named to several all-tournament teams.

Files received her bachelor's degree in exercise science in May 2002 and completed her master's degree in sports administration in December 2004.

Files was a three-year letterwinner in volleyball for Coach Patty McWilliams at Blue Springs South High School in Blue Springs, Mo. She was named all-state, all-conference and all-district for three straight years.

The three-year All-Kansas City Area performer was named "Player of the Year" in 1997, and was selected to participate in the Kansas City All-Star Volleyball Game.

Files, along with her husband, Brandon, has a 18-year-old stepson, Brandon, and a dog, Kody.

SAM OJIE

Assistant Coach | Third Season | Tulane (2003)

Third-year Sooner assistant coach Sam Ojie (pronounced O-jay) came to Norman after serving in the same capacity for eight years at Tulane, Central Florida and Georgia, his latest coaching stop. In addition to Ojie's coaching duties at Oklahoma, he works with on and off-campus recruiting as well as scouting and match preparation.

"We couldn't be more excited to have Sam on our staff," head coach Santiago Restrepo said. "His background and professional experience make him one of the best recruiters internationally and one of the best evaluators of talent around. Our entire team is going to benefit from his overall knowledge and experience with the game."

As an assistant on the Georgia staff in 2006, Ojie worked with the outside hitters. Under his direction, outside hitter Maria Taylor finished second among all SEC players with a 4.52 KPG average.

Prior to Georgia, Ojie spent two years with Central Florida (2004-05) which included a stint as interim head coach in 2004 as Golden Knight head coach Meg Colado was on maternity leave for all but two matches of the season. As the interim head coach, Ojie led two Central Florida players to All-Atlantic Sun honors.

Ojie began his coaching career with a five-year stint at Tulane from 1999-2003. While an assistant for the Green Wave, Ojie led four hitters to All-Conference USA honors. In addition, the 2002 Green Wave squad collected 226 service aces, the most since 1992 for Tulane. The Green Wave averaged 15.33 kills per game with Ojie on staff and the team's hitting percentage increased 25 points during his time in Louisiana.

Before joining Tulane's staff, Ojie played for Hainaut Valley of Valenciennes, which is a professional club team in France, from 1996-99. Ojie led his Hainaut squad in 1998 to a Division III title, thanks to his offensive and blocking skills. Suiting up for Mizuno Mallory in London from 1994-96, Ojie led his team to an undefeated record for two straight seasons.

Ojie's pro career began as a player for the Ivory Coast Abidjan University Club in 1992, where the local media recognized him as the team's most outstanding player.

Ojie, a native of Nigeria who is fluent in three languages, graduated from the Command Second School in 1985 and then earned his bachelor of arts degree at Tulane University. Ojie also received his associate's degree in applied business while at Tulane.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

NICKI GREEN

Director of Operations | Third Season | Southern Mississippi (2003)

Nicki Green joined the Oklahoma volleyball program in 2006 after serving as an assistant coach at UNC Charlotte. Green also had a two-year stint as an assistant at her alma mater, Southern Miss.

Green is very familiar with the Oklahoma coaches as she played under head coach Santiago Restrepo at Southern Miss and is the sister of current OU assistant Kelly Files, a former Southern Miss teammate.

Her primary responsibilities include handling OU's team travel arrangements while assisting with on-campus recruiting, alumni contact, booster development, summer camps and administrative duties. She is director of the Oklahoma Elite Volleyball Club.

As an assistant at UNC Charlotte, Green was instrumental in leading the 49ers to their highest win total since 1994 as the squad also advanced to its second straight Atlantic-10 Tournament. Green served as the first assistant and was the recruiting coordinator for the 49ers while also working with outside hitters and liberos. As an assistant at Southern Miss, Green's duties included recruiting, on-court coaching and conditioning, as well as team travel, scouting, fund-raising and video exchange.

In her playing days, she was named to Southern Miss' All-30 Volleyball Team and led the Golden Eagles to the most wins in school history with a 26-7 record in 2003. She topped the team in kills and ranked third in aces that same year. She recorded 1,034 kills and 929 digs in her career and ranks in the school's all-time Top 15 in kills, aces, digs and attempts. An academic standout, the President and Dean's List honoree was also a CoSIDA Academic All-Region second team selection.

A native of Kansas City, Mo., Green is a 2003 graduate of Southern Miss and completed her master's degree in sports administration/management in 2005.

She and her husband, Jarrod, were married in July 2003. He is serving with the United States Army.

DAVID L. BOREN

13th University President

David L. Boren, who has served Oklahoma as governor and U.S. senator, became the 13th president of the University of Oklahoma in November 1994. He is the first person in state history to have served in all three positions.

Boren is widely respected for his academic credentials, his longtime support of education, and for his distinguished political career as a reformer of the American political system. A graduate of Yale University in 1963, Boren majored in American history, graduated in the top one percent of his class and was elected Phi Beta Kappa. He was selected as a Rhodes Scholar and earned a master's degree in politics, philosophy and economics from Oxford University, England, in 1965.

In 1968, he received a law degree from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where he was on the Law Review, elected to the Order of the Coif, and won the Bledsoe Prize as the outstanding graduate by a vote of the faculty.

As Oklahoma's governor from 1974 through 1978, Boren promoted key educational initiatives that have had an enduring impact on Oklahoma. Established during his tenure were: the Oklahoma Summer Arts Institute, the Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program, and the Oklahoma Physicians Manpower Training Program, which provides scholarships for medical students and medical personnel who commit to practice in underserved rural areas. Also, the first state funding for Gifted and Talented classes was provided in 1976 and, from 1976 through 1978, Oklahoma ranked first among all states in the percentage increases of funding for higher education.

One of Boren's most far-reaching projects in promoting quality education at all levels is the Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence, which he founded in 1985. The foundation recognizes outstanding public school students and teachers and helps establish private local foundations to help give academic endowment grants to local public schools. As a senator, he was the author of the National Security Education Act in 1992, which provides scholarships for study abroad and for learning additional languages, as well as legislation to restore the tax deductibility of gifts of appreciated property to universities in 1993.

Boren, also a former state legislator, spent nearly three decades in elective politics before becoming the president of the University of Oklahoma. Boren was the youngest governor in the nation when he served from 1974 to 1978. Known as a reformer, Boren campaigned with a broom as his symbol. During his term, he instituted many progressive programs, including conflict-of-interest rules, campaign-financing disclosure, stronger open meeting laws for public bodies, and more competitive bidding on state government contracts.

During his time in the U.S. Senate -- from 1979 to 1994 -- Boren served on the Senate Finance and Agriculture Committees and was the longest-serving chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. From his days as a state legislator and governor of Oklahoma to Washington, Boren carried a commitment to reform, leading numerous efforts to make government work better for American citizens. As chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, he strengthened oversight of secret government programs and reformed the procedures for Presidential notice of such programs to Congress.

For more than 10 years, he led the fight for congressional campaign finance reform and for legislation discouraging administration and congressional staff from cashing in on government experience and contacts by becoming lobbyists. In addition, he introduced legislation seeking to limit gifts and travel subsidies that government workers, including members of Congress, can receive from lobbyists. Boren also chaired the special 1992-93 Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress, which produced proposals to make Congress more efficient and responsive by streamlining congressional bureaucracy, reducing staff sizes and reforming procedures to end legislative gridlock.

Boren left the U.S. Senate in 1994 with an approval rating of 91 percent after being reelected with 83 percent of the vote in 1990, the highest percentage in the nation in a U.S. Senate contest in that election year.

Boren served from 1988 to 1997 as a member of the Yale University Board of Trustees. His university experience also includes four years on the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University, where he was chairman of the Department of Political Science and chairman of the Division of Social Sciences. In 1993, the American Association of University Professors presented Boren with the Henry Yost Award as Education Advocate of the Year.

In April 2004, Boren received the Mory's Cup from the Mory's Association at Yale University. In making the presentation to Boren it was noted that he was the first Yale graduate in the university's history extending over three centuries to have served as a Governor, U.S. Senator and President of a major university.

The number of new facilities started or completed on the campus during the Boren years has matched the explosion in new programs. Since 1994, almost $1 billion in construction projects have been completed or are under way on OU's three campuses. Among the largest of the current projects are the $18.7 million renovation and expansion of historic Holmberg Hall, home of music and dance programs; the $67 million National Weather Center; the $19 million addition to the Michael F. Price College of Business; the $17 million Gaylord Hall for journalism and mass communication; the $27 million Stephenson Research and Technology Center; and the $83.5 million stadium project. The Health Sciences Center has a new Student Union, and the new $24 million Stanton L. Young Biomedical Research Center.

Above all, the Boren years have been marked by an emphasis on putting students first. There is not a university president in the country who is more committed to students as his number one priority. He teaches a freshman-level course in political science each semester and is one of the few presidents of major universities to teach.

Boren is married to Molly Shi Boren, a former judge and English teacher. Molly Boren has two degrees from the University of Oklahoma, a master's degree in English and a Juris Doctor degree from the OU College of Law. A native of Seminole, Boren has two children, Carrie Christine Boren, an Episcopal minister, and David Daniel Boren, a member of the United States Congress from Oklahoma. Devoting much of his life to public service, Boren drew from the example of his parents, the late Congressman Lyle H. Boren and Christine Boren.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JOE CASTIGLIONE

Vice-President for Intercollegiate Athletics Programs

Principle Centered Leader ... Visionary ... Passionate Advocate for Student-Athletes ... Establishes Standards of Excellence & Cultural Values ... Builder of Championship Programs

Each of those characteristics, standing alone, describes the 11th director of athletics in University of Oklahoma history. However, just as he has brought together different groups who are committed to one goal, you must combine those traits to get the complete picture of the person who has led the OU athletics department since 1998.

Joe Castiglione has established a pattern of excellence that few in his profession can match. In an environment where every decision is made reflecting the department's mission statement "Inspiring champions today ... Preparing leaders for tomorrow," forming the background, Castiglione is leading the department that has written one of the most successful eras in school history.

Quick to give credit to the student-athletes and coaches, the staff and the university administration, the donors and the fans, Castiglione was the one who implemented the changes that led to success. When he was hired in 1998, the search committee believed they had found a rising star in the field of intercollegiate athletics administration. Everything that has happened since his arrival at OU has cemented that reputation.

The accomplishments of the department and its student-athletes, coaches and staff have earned national recognition for the university and the department. Recognized as the 2007 PRISM Award winner by the School of Sports Management at the University of Massachusetts, OU was just the second Division I winner and all of the programs recognized by the selection panel were started under Castiglione's leadership. The PRISM Award annually recognizes one Division I intercollegiate athletics department that demonstrates industry-leading excellence and innovation in sports management.

His commitment to the success of student-athletes led NCAA President Dr. Myles Brand to appoint him as chair of the Football Academic Progress Rate (APR) Working Group in June of 2008. This group, which includes presidents, chancellors, conference commissioners, faculty athletics representatives, athletics directors and head football coaches, has been given the charge to review the APR as it pertains to Division I football student-athletes. When the study is complete, the group will report back to Dr. Brand and the NCAA Board of Directors with their findings, evaluations and recommendations for improvement.

His peers have honored him for the department's achievements as well. In October 2004, the Bobby Dodd Foundation named him Athletics Director of the Year. In 2003, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame. In June 2001, he received the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement from the All-American Football Foundation. The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named him Central Region AD of the Year in 2000.

Perhaps his most unique achievement over the last 10 years for Castiglione, though, came when he received his master's of education degree from OU in May 2007. To understand the need for education and lifelong learning, OU's student-athletes just have to look at their AD who started and completed his master's degree while running the department and maintaining his priorities to his family. He quickly put his experience to use as an adjunct professor in the College of Education teaching a graduate class in Marketing & Development.

The 11th director of athletics at the University of Oklahoma has celebrated seven national team championships and over 40 conference team titles; record numbers of graduating student-athletes and record-setting grade point averages for Sooner teams; dramatically increased donor giving; huge increases in ticket sales for all sports; major facility improvements, and development and construction of new facilities. And, as aggressive as the push to improve, expand and excel has been, he has produced a balanced budget in every year of his tenure, a first since the early 1980s.

Credited with energizing OU's fund-raising efforts, Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign For Sooner Sports. The campaign ended in November of 2003 with more than $125 million raised. The figure has grown to almost $200 million since then as the department continues its approach, and largest fund-raising effort in OU athletics history including projects that impact each of OU's nearly 500 student-athletes. It has become a national model for intercollegiate athletics.

Castiglione has cultivated over 20 multi-million dollar gifts including the largest capital gifts in history for athletics at OU, and some of the largest ever for the university as a whole. He has driven dramatic facilities projects, including a $70 million renovation and expansion of Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Others include a $17.2 million renovation of Lloyd Noble Center; phase I of The Headington Family Tennis Complex; John Jacobs Track and Field Complex; the Everest Training Facility, one of the largest indoor practice areas in the country; and construction of the Gregg & Betsy Wadley Indoor Tennis Center. Other projects completed in his tenure have included the redesign of the Sooner football practice fields; the Port Robertson Wrestling Facility; phase I & II of the Sooner Soccer Complex; expansion of the Viersen Gymnastics Pavilion as well as additional renovations to the McCasland Field House; L. Dale Mitchell Park, the Charlie Coe Golf Learning Center, the OU Softball Complex and Barry Switzer Center. His administrative work, which has seen significant reorganization and the hiring of 12 head coaches, also included the negotiation of multi-million dollar multi-media rights contract that produces more than $8 million in annual revenue for the athletics department. His leadership was instrumental as well as the Sooners added their 21st athletics team to the OU family, women's rowing (which will begin competition in the fall of 2008) and the design and construction of the new McClendon Boathouse on the Oklahoma River.

Castiglione was hired on April 30, 1998, after serving as athletics director at Missouri. In his 17-year career with the Tigers, Castiglione, who was named director of athletics at Missouri on Dec. 15, 1993, was credited with rebuilding sports programs, hiring outstanding coaches, implementing an innovative master plan for facilities, inspiring record-setting increases in fund-raising and balancing the budget in each of his five years as athletics director.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the University's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007. He began his career as the sports promotions director at Rice. He then worked a year as director of athletic fund-raising at Georgetown before being hired in 1981 at Missouri as director of communications and marketing.

Active on the national and conference level, he is currently serving on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors. He served two terms as chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors and is a past president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He served a four-year term on the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and the NCAA Baseball Committee and is a past member of the NCAA Football Special Events Certification Committee. # THE CLIMB

SOONERS FACED ADVERSITY TO GROW AS A TEAM IN 2008

At the beginning of the season, the mountain the University of Oklahoma volleyball team had to climb seemed insurmountable. Eighty-nine days later, the team finished its journey and, in the process, learned more about the value of teamwork and each other than they ever imagined.

Along the way, they faced top 10 opponents, the ever-tough Big 12 and this family played for their head coach as he faced the toughest battle of his life. The view from the top 89 days later may have been a little foggy, but the Sooners do not have plans to come down anytime soon.

With only one senior and a bevy of players who had little playing experience, OU head coach Santiago Restrepo set out to test his squad. On the docket for the Sooners were several traditional powers, including three-time national champion Southern California. Most thought the head coach was ambitious for taking a team with six freshmen and challenging them to go up against the nation's best.

Not this coach. Not this team. They saw it as opportunity.

The highlight of the non-conference season was a schedule shakeup thanks to Hurricane Ike. The team was challenged earlier, facing Michigan State, Wichita State and 10th-ranked Cal Poly in Norman. OU defeated the Spartans before falling to the Mustangs and Shockers, a team that was ranked the following week and did not drop out all season.

The next weekend, the Sooners went toe-to-toe with Southern California on its home floor at the Galen Center in Los Angeles. OU did not fare as well as hoped, falling to the Women of Troy and 21st-ranked San Diego. After a win against Hofstra, OU moved to 2-4 on the year. Not quite the rolling start the Sooners wanted, but the experience would prove worthwhile in the long run.

Facing Nebraska and Texas twice a year is not easy. Ask any coach in the Big 12. With a challenging conference schedule, the Sooners faced #2 Nebraska and #3 Texas in back-to-back matches – not once but twice. Throw in a red-hot Iowa State team and a Baylor squad knocking on the door and OU was up against stout competition.

After starting the conference season 3-8, OU found itself struggling to score. They had fallen at Baylor, at Iowa State and at Texas A&M. Road wins were hard to come by, so winning at home became an even bigger priority.

Then, it happened.

Oklahoma traveled to Austin to face the third-ranked Longhorns at Gregory Gym. OU only had one series win against Texas – back in 2006 in Norman. On October 29, 2008, the Sooners did the impossible and defeated Texas on its home floor – in front of its home crowd. The five set win was hard fought and went down to the wire. The match featured 17 lead changes and 41 ties and OU held a 14-13 advantage in the final set before sophomore middle blocker Francie Ekwerekwu threw down the final kill.

It was, without question, the biggest win in school history. To beat your archrival at its place and gain your program's first win over a top five opponent, it was a cornerstone win for the program.

Following the Texas match, the Sooners were renewed. They posted a 3-4 record but, more importantly, they were playing as a team.

They were communicating. They were defending the net. They were getting offensive help from all across the floor. They were making amazing defensive plays to save rallies.

They were united.

In the end, they came up short by NCAA Tournament standards – two wins shy of consideration, but the value of the experience – on and off the court – cannot be matched.

The season started with building blocks and now, this team has all the tools in place to stay atop the mountain for a long time.

HIGGINS, BARKER EARN BIG 12 HONORS

University of Oklahoma volleyball freshmen Caitlin Higgins and Brianne Barker were named to the 2008 Big 12 All-Freshman Team. Joining Higgins and Barker on the team were Freshman of the Year Michelle Kocher (Texas), Rachel Hockaday (Iowa State), Nicole Tate (Kansas) and Amanda Dowdy (Texas Tech). Higgins finished the season second on the team in kills (276), kills per set (2.49) and fourth in digs (315) and digs per set (2.84). She hit .113 on the year and led the team with 30 service aces. Higgins was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week on Nov. 3 and followed with the Sports Imports/AVCA National Player of the Week the following day. Higgins became the first Sooner to earn national player of the week honors and the first OU freshman to earn a weekly honor from the Big 12. Barker led the team in assists, tallying a freshman record 1,035 for a 9.32 assists per set average. Barker hit .254 on the year and was third on the team in digs (316) and digs per set (2.85). Barker was named Best Setter of the Red Raider Round Up after the Sooners won the tournament title.

HIGGINS EARNS BIG 12 OFFENSIVE AWARD

University of Oklahoma outside hitter Caitlin Higgins was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week on Nov. 3. It is the first honor for Higgins and the second weekly honor for the Sooners in 2008. Higgins became the first freshman from Oklahoma to earn a weekly conference honor. She was also the first Big 12 freshman to earn the offensive award. Higgins led OU to a 2-0 record, including an upset at then third-ranked Texas and a victory at home against Baylor. She posted a team-high 18 kills and 12 digs, while compiling a .311 hitting percentage in Austin. The Amarillo, Texas rookie also had three service aces and scored 21.5 points overall in the match. Higgins then recorded 20 digs and 13 kills along with a block solo and two block assists versus the Bears. For the week, she paced the Sooners in kills (31) and was second in digs (32) in addition to tallying 38.5 points, five service aces and four blocks.

HIGGINS NAMED NATIONAL POW

Higgins was named the American Volleyball Coaches Association/Sports Imports Division I National Player of the Week on Nov. 4 following her performance against Texas and Baylor. She was the first OU student-athlete to earn the honor. Higgins also earned CVU.com Top Performer of the Week honors following her selection as the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week.

THE NEW BATMAN AND ROBIN

OU's dynamic freshman duo of Brianne Barker and Caitlin Higgins came up big again for the Sooners at Texas. Higgins led the team with 18 kills and 12 digs for her 10th double-double of the season. She hit .311 and also added a block assist. Barker added 47 assists and 11 digs for her team-leading 11th double-double of the year. Barker led the team with a .417 clip. Barker and Higgins then led OU in the five-set win against Baylor at home. Barker had her 12th double-double of the year with a season-high 52 assists and a season-high 20 digs. Higgins had 13 kills and 20 digs for her 11th double-double.

Six student-athletes from the University of Oklahoma volleyball team were named to the 2008 Academic All-Big 12 first team. Senior Lacy Barnes, junior Bridget Laplante and redshirt sophomore Francie Ekwerewku earned the honor for a second consecutive year. ## RESTREPO'S MAGIC AGAINST TEXAS

The Sooners snapped Texas' 23-game home win streak on Oct. 29, dating back to Sept. 27, 2007. The win was Oklahoma's first ever in Austin, pushing the mark to 1-18. It was only OU's second win against the Longhorns (32-2). Both OU wins have come under current head coach Santiago Restrepo.

FIRST WIN OVER A TOP FIVE OPPONENT

The win at Texas was Oklahoma's first over a top five opponent and second against a team in the top 10. When OU defeated Texas in 2006, the Longhorns were eighth in the country.

FREUDENRICH NAMED ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Middle blocker Sarah Freudenrich was named the Big 12 Rookie of the Week on Oct. 22. The Broken Arrow, Okla., native is the first OU volleyball player to earn a weekly honor this year and the fifth in school history. Freudenrich had a career week against Colorado and Kansas. She started both matches, averaging 3.29 kills per set and hitting .283 on the week. Freudenrich had 15 total blocks, four of those block solos. She had 10 kills against Colorado and then eclipsed that career-high with 13 against Kansas. Against the Buffaloes, she led OU with two block solos and six block assists and had two block solos and five block assists at Kansas. In total, she scored 33.5 points in seven sets played on the week.

Dear Sooner Volleyball Fan,

Thank you for your continued support of our student-athletes this past year as well as your commitment and dedication to the development of our program. We are excited to begin another chapter as the anticipation for the 2009 season continues to grow. We are consistently striving to reach our team's goal of contributing to the rich athletic and academic tradition here at the University of Oklahoma.

Our program continues to soar to new heights as this squad will be aiming for a return trip to the NCAA Tournament after impressive runs in the tournament in 2006 and 2007. In addition, we have built this program into a perennial top-25 squad and a contender in the Big 12 Conference. We have also assembled a huge home court advantage at Howard McCasland Field House and are looking to pack the field house for every home match this upcoming season.

While it was hard to say goodbye to senior Lacy Barnes, we will return all six position starters and also welcome three exciting newcomers. We encourage you to take the time to learn more about this year's team by visiting SoonerSports.com.

We believe the improvements our program has made both on the court and in the classroom are largely due to the support of the athletic department, the student body and the community. We encourage you to come and continue to show your support and help spread the word about Sooner Volleyball. I guarantee you will see exciting and competitive matches, a result of the passion, belief, and dedication that our athletes have for our sport and University. We will continue to set new standards and improve in our win column.

The excitement for the 2009 season has never been greater and we look forward to you being a part of our success. We appreciate all of your support and hope you will enjoy the season as much as we will.
